JUDGE PARKER FAILED AGAIN

His Second Speech of the Campaign a Bitter Disappointment.

MR. DALZELL TALKS

Congressman Says the Candidate's Reference to Cleveland Was Unfortunate

CAMPAIGN FOR PITTSBURGH

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.

"What was supposed to be apathy among the voters was only decision. The people had made up their minds."

In this trite and striking manner Representative John Dalzell of Pittsburgh today characterized the result of the Vermont election. He believes it likewise represents the feeling throughout the country; that the absence of noise and tumult does not indicate an absence of interest in the presidential contest, but is evidence that the people have made up their minds and are waiting to register their verdict.

Mr. Dalzell is here clearing the decks for action and getting ready to engage the enemy in several states until election day. He has some matters pending before the departments he wishes to attend to before he takes the stump. Mr. Dalzell will make his speaking tour under the direction of three committees, the Allegheny county committee, the Pennsylvania state committee and the Republican congressional campaign committee.

Five Speeches at Pittsburgh.

In and about Pittsburgh he is scheduled to make five speeches, one at the big meeting in Old City hall that is to be held about September 26, and which is to open the campaign in the western end of the state; one in the East End and at Braddock, McKeesport and Verona. These assignments were made by the Allegheny county committee, although the dates have not yet been selected. The state committee will call upon him to address meetings in a number of towns throughout the state which Senator Penrose will specify later.

Under the direction of Chairman Babcock of the congressional committee, Mr. Dalzell will make speeches in New Jersey, Rhode Island, Maryland, West Virginia and Ohio. With other leaders of the house of representatives, including Speaker Cannon, Representatives Payne of New York and Littlefield of Maine, Mr. Dalzell will, with the exception of the addresses he will make in his own state, work exclusively under the direction of the congressional committee, which has for its especial object the election of a Republican majority in the next house.

After conferring with the leaders at headquarters in New York and with members of congress from various sections of the country, Mr. Dalzell is of the opinion that the outlook for a great Republican victory this fall is very bright. In the returns from Vermont he reads a significance that means success. Said he:

Parker a Disappointment.

"The fact that Vermont gave the greatest majority in her history with the exception of 1896, shows that what was supposed to be apathy among the voters was only decision. The people had made up their minds and therefore there was no reason for stirring up enthusiasm. Vermont's record is an indication of what we may expect in the country at large this fall.

"Judge Parker's latest speech, which he addressed to the Democratic editors, was as unfruitful as his previous utterances. The whole speech was a disappointment. He arraigns the Republican party for extravagance, but he fails to give any bill of particulars. He does not point out where we have been extravagant. I am of the opinion that the people are not worried over the increased expenditures of the government so long as we have the money to pay out, and so long as they know that it is expended judiciously.

"Judge Parker's comparison with the Cleveland administration was very unfortunate. Why, Cleveland paid out the entire gold reserve to meet the current expenses of the government and borrowed $260,000,000. It does not seem to me that a comparison of Republican rule with that record will show up well for the Democrats. The fact is, they have no issue, and they are trying to make one out of President Roosevelt's personality.

"Attacks of this kind will not win votes and they cannot find a weak spot in his record."

WILL SEE [illegible] AT THE END

The Russian Army Has Been Divided into Five Columns.

ONE IS AT [illegible]

Fifth Is Fighting Hard, Surrounded by Japanese South of City.

TORRENT OF RAIN IS FALLING

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Daily Telegraph closes to-day's [illegible] information that the Russian army is divided into five columns. The first has reached Tie-Ling, 40 miles north of Mukden, and is preparing to defend that place against the Japanese. The second is midway between Mukden and Tie-Ling. The third is at Mukden. The fourth, consisting of 40,000 men, under Gen. Meyerdorff, is holding Gen. Kuroki in check by hard fighting 12 miles south of Mukden. The fifth, of about 12,000 men, is further south, exhausted by incessant fighting and is surrounded on three sides by the Japanese, its position being one of extreme danger, from which it can hardly hope to escape.

"Everything now depends," says the paper, "on Meyendorff's ability to hold Kuroki in check, which so far has been successfully done."

MUKDEN, Sept. 9.—This evening around Mukden has occurred the greatest downpour of rain of the whole campaign, and with it a terrifying accompaniment of thunder and lightning. There has been the greatest difficulty in preventing the cavalry stampeding by the double guards, and all the horse lines have been tied. The men are scarcely able to keep their feet around the moving horses and are singing and talking to quiet them.

All the lower ground is under water and Chinese boats from the Hun river are navigating many of the roads and some of the streets. This makes little difference to the men who are under canvas, but all others are soaked to the skin and are sleeping, exhausted, in mud and water, indifferent to the weather if they can snatch much needed rest.

One advantage is that the rain has entirely checked the movements of the Japanese eastern and southern armies—in fact, quiet reigns over the whole front.

The Chinese population of Mukden is so far fairly orderly. The Chinese are suffering greatly and in the villages all around crops, cattle and poultry have been trodden down and killed. The Russians are endeavoring to pay for all damage, though this is often difficult owing to the rapid shifting of the troops.

BERLIN, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Mukden, timed 11:40 a. m. today, says the evacuation of Mukden is now in progress, and adds that the Japanese have not yet crossed the river Hun, which flows a few miles south of Mukden.

Telegraph Line Is Intact.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept 10.—In a dispatch received from Lieut.-Gen. Sakaroff late yesterday he says there was no fighting at Mukden on September 8. Viceroy Alexieff telegraphed yesterday that railroad and telegraph service between Mukden and Harbin is still uninterrupted.

It seems to be definitely established that Field Marshal Oyama's tired troops practically abandoned on Wednesday the attempt to head off Gen. Kuropatkin, and the latter's army has arrived safely at Mukden after frightful experiences in floundering through mud and mire over the Mandarian road.

Some descriptions of the scenes along the line of retreat are almost incredible. They tell how the men lay down in the mud, and slept in a drenching rain and without shelter.

It is evident that the last determined effort of the Japanese to bring Kuropatkin to bay was made on Tuesday, but the Russian commander-in-chief faced about, and two corps with artillery beat off the Japanese while the remainder of the troops continued the march to Mukden. After that the Japanese could only hang on to the flanks and try to shell the retreating columns from the hills.

The outposts are still in contact, but they are not even exchanging shots.

A late dispatch tonight from Mukden

BUTLER CANNOT STAND PARKER

Former Populist National Chairman Will Support President Roosevelt.

BRYANITES GOING TO WATSON

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.

Ex-Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina, former national chairman of the Populist party, is of the opinion that the Populist vote will prove an important factor in the approaching election. In New York city and in New Jersey, Indiana, Connecticut and Illinois, he believes the Populists will have to be reckoned with. Personally, Senator Butler will vote for Roosevelt and expects to see him elected. He would vote for Watson, he says, if there was any chance for Watson to win, but as there is not, he does not feel like throwing away his vote.

"In New York city," said Mr. Butler, "men who voted for Bryan and formerly for Henry George are refusing to vote for either of the candidates of the old parties and they will vote for Watson. A great many of the Bryan Democrats do not wish to vote for Roosevelt, but they will absolutely not vote for Parker. They want to vote for some one, and in order to do it they will vote for Watson. There are other Populists who prefer to cast a whole vote against Parker instead of a half vote, and they will vote for Roosevelt direct.

"President Roosevelt, in my opinion, will get about half of the Populist vote in this country. He is greatly admired for his independence and honesty, without regard to party lines. I heard a Populist recently say that he was the most independent character in public life since Andrew Jackson, and that he proposed to support him.

"In a general way I should say about half of the Populists of the country will vote for President Roosevelt and the other half will vote for Watson. The Populists want to vote for some one. They are not the kind of people to be satisfied with not voting at all. In 1896 we polled over 2,000,000 votes in the state elections, and Weaver in 1892 got about 1,200,000 votes. So you can see that the vote will be an important element in this election.

"While Mr. Bryan will have an influence with many of the Democrats, at the same time many of them who do not disapprove his course in sticking to the Democratic organization with the hope that it may be redeemed four years hence, will vote according to their own convictions. They see how disastrous it would be to turn over the party to corporate influences that have been traded with in order to attempt to secure a political victory. They will largely vote for Watson rather than go over entirely to the Republican ticket.

"So far as I am concerned, I propose voting for President Roosevelt. I would vote for Watson if I could see a chance to elect him, but I prefer giving my vote to Mr. Roosevelt. With many others I admire his independence of character. I admire his honesty, and I want to do anything that is within my power in order to prevent the defeat of such a man because he has those characteristics."

BLUE ARMY HAS BEEN DEMOLISHED

Such, Theoretically, Is the Result of Bell's Onslaught on Grant.

HONORS ARE EVENLY DIVIDED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CORPS HEADQUARTERS, GAINESVILLE, VA., Sept. 9.—The second maneuver problem ceased at 9 o'clock today with Gen. Bell, commanding the Brown army, demolishing Gen. Grant, commanding the Blue army, east of Bull Run. This result awards victory to the attacking force in each of the two problems, and makes Gen. Grant the first victor and Gen. Bell the second, so far as results can be estimated without bulleis.

The maneuvering and fighting today was far the most spectacular and exciting of the campaign. The first day of the second problem had developed nothing but a rear-guard action on the part of Gen. Grant, while Gen. Bell had spent his time endeavoring to make a demonstration on the left wing or to the south of the Blue line. During the night the situation was changed. Gen. Grant's main position remained the same, behind or to the east of Bull Run. He withdrew his first brigade under Gen. Wint, who had fought the rear guard action the day before, to the famous stone bridge across Bull Run along whose eastern shores the trenches dug by the federal troops still remain, and in which Gen. Grant posted Gen. Wint's line after it had been driven across the bridge with the loss of one brigade.

Gen. Bell executed a magnificent march with the forces which the day before were on the left wing of his enemy. He threw them during the small hours of the night from the left to the right of Grant's position. When daylight came they were put across Bull Run at Sudley, or to the extreme north of the maneuver scene. His center remained practically the same, and fought a brigade action at Stonebridge.

It was at the point here that the fighting of the day began. The Brown forces charged up to the bridge, which was constructively blown up, but were repulsed and ordered back. A second charge likewise did not meet the approval of the umpires, but the third was accomplished by a most brilliant action.

A part of the Brown force, a section of the Ninth infantry, had deployed in the woods, gone down stream and waded across. They crept up on the east bank and got in position not 20 yards behind the Blue defenders, when the Eighth Massachusetts and Twelfth New York, who were making the charge on the west side, came up the third time. It did not take the umpire a second to rule out the entire Blue force at this point as annihilated, and the Brown army crossed the Run at will.

In the meantime, the force which had crossed to the north at Dudley had been coming down toward the pike. They struck Grant's line to the rear, and the maneuver ended when this force appeared in a flanking movement on a Blue line, which was facing a Brown line that had crossed at the stone bridge. In summing up the situation tonight, Col. Wagner, chief umpire, gave the precise movement of each brigade during the night after which he commented on the maneuver

In relinquishing command of the maneuver force, Gen. Corbin issued a general order tonight, expressing his approval of the work done by each commander and the force under him. The militia will be paid tomorrow after the review, which is to be held at Wellington at 1 o'clock.

Knox Visits His Alma Mater.

ALLIANCE, O., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Senator Philander C. Knox was in this city today, visiting his alma mater, Mount Union college, and calling on C. Y. Kay, a classmate. His visit is said to have had no political significance. He was accompanied by Judge Young of Pittsburgh and his son, Hugh Knox.

Antarctic Expedition Returns.

LAST OF ELKINS ESTATE TRACTION STOCK IS SOLD

P. A. B. Widener Now Has No Rival in the United States as an Owner of Street Railway Securities.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—It was officially announced today that a block of 35,000 shares of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit stock owned by the estate of the late W. L. Elkins had been sold privately to a syndicate, composed chiefly of New Yorkers. The price received was not less than $15 a share and not more than $17. Consequently the total sum involved was at least $525,000. W. L. Elkins originally owned 50,000 shares of Rapid Transit, but the other 15,000 shares were disposed of some time ago.

The deal announced today virtually eliminates the Elkins family from the world-famous traction syndicate, which was originally composed of W. L. Elkins, P. A. B. Widener and William H. Kemble. When Elkins died last autumn he owned, besides the 50,000 shares of rapid transit, great blocks of Union Traction, Philadelphia Traction, Philadelphia Company bonds and Metropolitan Traction stock. The estate seems to have decided upon a policy of selling all traction securities. It is known that $900,000 of Consolidated Traction of New Jersey bonds were sold and upward of $2,000,000 of Philadelphia Company bonds, besides a great deal of Union Traction, Philadelphia Traction and virtually all of the Metropolitan Traction.

Today P. A. B. Widener has no rival in America as an owner of street railway securities. He is in that field of enterprise what John D. Rockefeller is in oil, Andrew Carnegie is in steel, J. P. Morgan is in banking and E. H. Harriman and George J. Gould are in steam railroads.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

PITTSBURGHER CRAZED.

Frenzied, Owing to Hunger, William Mulvey Is Locked Up, Through His Own Appeal.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—"Officer, for God's sake, lock me up. I'm crazy from hunger," said William Mulvey of Pittsburgh. "If I'm not put behind the bars I'll commit murder or suicide."

The man said this to Patrolman Rapu, on bended knees. He said he once was prosperous in Pittsburgh, but illness had robbed him of wife, child and health. Drifting to Cincinnati he was unable to find work, and too, proud to beg, fasted until, he says, his mind gave away.

Rapp presented him in police court today on a charge of loitering and he probably will be sent to Longview for treatment.

There is no William Mulvey, who has been a prsperous business man in this city, as far as ascertained.

LOCKED IN VAULT BY ROBBERS

Masked Men Hold Up Treasurer Chase of Meigs County, O.

GET OVER $13,000

Daughter Discovers Father's Predicament and Bank Cashier Releases Him.

HOUNDS THROWN OFF SCENT

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

POMEROY O, Sept. 9.—While Treasurer Chase of Meigs county was sitting alone in his office this morning at 9:30 o'clock two masked men entered and while one of them held a cocked revolver to his face the other demanded the keys to the office door. The treasurer gave them up and the robbers after locking the door and lowering the blinds, went through the vault, cash drawer and the treasurer's pockets, securing between $13,000 and $14,000. The men then compelled the treasurer to enter the vault and locked him in. Then they sprinkled the floor of the office with cayenne pepper to prevent bloodhounds from getting a trail, and, locking the office door from the outside, escaped entirely unnoticed.

The court house was practically deserted today, as this was the big day at the Meigs county fair, held at Rock Springs, about three miles from here, and nearly all the citizens and all the county officials, except the treasurer and the auditor, were in attendance. The auditor's office is directly opposite that of the treasurer, but he did not see or hear anything of the robbers. No one visited the treasurer's office for more than two hours, when the treasurer's daughter went there to use the telephone. Finding the door to her father's office locked, she got the janitor to let her in by a private door at the rear. Upon entering the room the young woman heard faint cries coming from the vault, and, not knowing what to think, gave the alarm. People came from all directions, and for a time it was thought the treasurer had accidentally locked himself in. The only other person who knew the combination was the treasurer's son, who was attending the fair.

The cashier of one of the banks was called upon, however, and with the assistance of the imprisoned man, who called the numbers of the combination to him, the lock was turned and the door opened. Treasurer Chase was nearly suffocated when he staggered out of the vault, and it was some time before he could tell the assembled crowd what had happened. He was unable to give a very good description of the men on account of their masks, but said they seemed to be not more than 25 years old and wore dark clothes.

Although bloodhounds were brought to the scene at once, they were unable to do anything on account of the pepper which had been thrown about.

WELCH MAY WITHDRAW IN STEWART'S FAVOR

Huntington County's Senatorial Candidate May End Deadlock in Interests of Harmony.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Sept. 9.—After taking 10 more ballots without a choice, the Republican conferees of the Franklin-Huntingdon senatorial district this evening adjourned to meet here next Friday, when another effort will be made to break the deadlock for senator. Senator Penrose's refusal to appoint an umpire under the Republican state rules to cast the deciding vote, has convinced both candidates that the nomination will have to be made without outside interference, and efforts are being made to effect a compromise.

Senator Alexander Stewart, Franklin county's choice, repeated today that he will not withdraw under any conditions, and that if he is deprived of the district nomination he will become an independent candidate.

The prospects are that at the next meeting of the conferees Allen S. Welch, Huntingdon county's candidate, will withdraw in Senator Stewart's favor and in the interest of party harmony, in consideration of which the Franklin county men will agree that the nomination shall go to Huntingdon in 1908.

MONEY FROM AMERICA EXTRACTED BY RUSSIA

Complaint from Pennsylvania That Remittances Are Confiscated by Government.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Reports from Pennsylvania that Russian authorities have been extracting money orders from letters sent home to their families by miners have not yet officially reached the postoffice department. Even if complaint is made, the postoffice officials do not think that they will be able to take any action, beyond lodging a formal protest.

It is charged that the Russian officials have been extracting money and announcing that the government will keep the various sums in trust for the people for whom it is intended.

Under the laws of this country the responsibility of the United States ends when the mails are delivered at a port of entry. For instance, if the mail is intended for Russia and is sent by the way of St. Petersburg the United States is responsible only until the mail is delivered to the authorities at St. Petersburg. If the money is taken from the letters after that it is a matter between the citizens of Russia and the government.

BIG DEAL MADE BY THE WABASH

Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad & Coal Company at Last Taken Over.

GETS WEST SIDE BELT

Consideration at Least $10,000,000 and Properties Give Wabash Much Tonnage at Once.

OBTAINS 15,000 ACRES OF COAL

Negotiations for the sale of the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad and Coal Company, with all its properties, to the Wabash interests were concluded in New York yesterday and announced on official authority. The deal has been in progress for more than a year, the matter of price being the main contention. Just what price was obtained is not told as yet. It is placed as low as $10,000,000 and as high as $12,000,000.

By this one move the Wabash railroad becomes this morning a factor of the first class in the freight situation in Pittsburgh. It owns in fee simple about 15,000 acres of the finest Pittsburgh coal, assuring it a coal traffic of 3,000,000 tons annually. It obtains 36 miles of terminal railroad, a half-mile frontage on the Pittsburgh harbor, connections with every railroad system entering Pittsburgh, well equipped with cars and tapping seven operating mines, the Clairton steel works and other industries. The Wabash is at once assured of sufficient tonnage to meet the entire interest charges on the Wabash Pittsburgh Terminal bonds. The success financially of the Pittsburgh line is settled.

Can Connect Roads in a Day.

For the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad & Coal Company the negotiations were conducted by President Charles Donnelly and ex-Senator William Flinn and F. F. Nicola, directors. For the Wabash the representatives were President Joseph Ramsey, Jr., President E. T. Jeffrey of the Denver & Rio Grande, a Gould line, and Winslow S. Pierce, the Gould railroad attorney.

The connection between the two railroads can be made in a few hours. If it is desired tonnage from the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad & Coal Company's mines may be moving over the Wabash Pittsburgh Terminal tracks before the sun sets this evening. Only a couple of switches need to be placed and a few yards of track laid at the south end of the Mt. Washington tunnel.

The deal also brings to a party of Pittsburghers a good profit for their foresight and their enterprise in developing a very costly proposition. It has required two years of the closest kind of work to bring the big plan around to its present success, but when it had been completed its natural destiny as a part of the Wabash Pittsburgh system was evident. The matter of price alone delayed the deal.

Many Properties Acquired.

The properties of the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad & Coal Company comprise the following:

The West Side Belt Railroad Company, extending from the mouth of Saw Mill run, on the Pittsburgh harbor, where it owns half a mile of frontage, to Clairton, 21 miles; branch to Banksville, two miles; connecting with Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, Panhandle, Wabash, Baltimore & Ohio (at Bruce on the Wheeling branch), and the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston line of the Pennsylvania railroad. It has five engines, one passenger car and 1,134 modern coal cars.

A tract of 11,000 acres of the highest grade bituminous coal through the full length of which the West Side Belt runs. In this seven mines are in operation. The fact that the late Selwyn M. Taylor was the engineer who supervised their opening proves the high character of the work.

A second tract of 3,879 acres of coal in the same vein, 12 miles from Pittsburgh on the present line of the Wabash-Pittsburgh terminal and as yet undeveloped. The title to the coal acreage is in fee simple. The company owns also 1,000 acres of surface land.

Several Subsidiary Concerns.

The value of the West Side belt, not taking into account the coal property, has been estimated at $8,000,000. Property owned and controlled with that available is sufficient for 250 miles of terminal yards, which will give the needed opportunity for a railroad clearing house in the Pittsburgh district. The mine tipples are practically in the terminal yards and are but a few minutes from the center of distribution of empty cars.

Coal of Famous Grade.

The coal property consists of 100,000,000 tons of coal. Of this 90,000,000 tons are Saw Mill Run, Castle Shannon and First and Second pool.

The capital stock of the railroad company is $1,080,000, the shares having a par value of $50. Of this amount $1,053,000 was secured in 1902, when the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad and Coal Company was formed.

The capital stock of the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad and Coal Company is

JOHN S. SCULLY,
Who Amalgamated the Big Coal Holdings and Built the West Side Belt Railroad.

$14,000,000. It has a funded debt of $7,000,000 represented by bonds bearing 5 per cent interest and due July, 1942. The bonds are secured by the company's coal lands, etc., and by the guarantee of the West Side Belt railroad stock owned. Of the issue $1,000,000 was reserved to retire the West Side Belt's first bonds, including $620,000 held in the latter's treasury, only $380,000 having been issued. There is a sinking fund provision of 8 cents on every ton of coal mined.

The Plan of John S. Scully.

The coal lands involved are those that were brought into one ownership by John S. Scully of Pittsburgh, until recently president of the Diamond National bank and Diamond Savings bank. Mr. Scully was several years in amalgamating the big group of farms that make up the Castle Shannon and other adjacent holdings. He built the West Side Belt railroad and developed the general plan until two years ago, when it was taken up by a group of leading Pittsburgh capitalists.

The personnel of this group is shown in the following list of officers and directors of the company: President, Charles Donnelly; treasurer, Joshua Rhodes; secretary, J. G. Patterson; assistant treasurer, W. G. Rock; directors, Charles Donnelly, T. H. Given, M. K. McMullin, J. D. Callery, F. F. Nicola, T. N. Barnsdall, J. G. Patterson, A. W. Osborne, S. H. Robbins, J. C. Gilchrist, Joshua Rhodes and William Flinn. The West Side Belt official list is practically the same, except that F. M. Osborne, formerly with the Pittsburgh Coal Company, is president of that road. Mr. Donnelly is its vice president.

Easy Connection With Carnegie Works.

To the Wabash system, rapidly completing its low grade well-built Pittsburgh line, the road comes just in time to give it the tonnage needed. Not only will it do that, but it will give easy connections with other large tonnage sections. To reach the Union railroad, the terminal line of the Carnegie Steel Company, it is necessary to build but a couple

CHARLES DONNELLY,
President of the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad and Coal Company.

of miles from the present line of the West Side Belt. This will make operative the contract between the Carnegie Steel Company and the Wabash, that was entered into just before Andrew Carnegie sold his interests to the United States Steel Corporation. It had been proposed to build a branch along Saw Mill run to extend the Wabash to this Union railroad connection, but it is not considered likely now that this will be done, although nothing official can be said on the subject. In addition it will make possible a Jones & Laughlin connection from behind the hill. It will make a line into McKeesport comparatively cheap and easy and it already connects with the steel works at Clairton. A huge tonnage along the Monongahela on both sides can be reached by spurs.

Relief for Pittsburgh Shippers.

To the city of Pittsburgh there is much advantage in this deal. The iron and steel situation has been brought into better shape recently than it has been for a year, and there is every confidence among the financiers and captains of industry of Pittsburgh that the coming year will bring a quickening all along the line, of which the signs are already visible. This means a stagnation in railroad yards, a congestion of freight and costly delays unless additional facilities are provided. The Wabash's new connections give those additional facilities. The road gives lines totaling 15,000 miles, radiating to the west in all directions. It gives an additional line to Lake Erie at Cleveland, Huron and Toledo, and a line through Michigan to take coal north and haul ore back.

By the proposed lines through Washington county to the Klondike coal region, to Greene county and through West Virginia, to the West Virginia Central and the Western Maryland, a new seaboard route is being built, a very large proportion of the grading and masonry having been completed, with thousands of men still working away at the task. It means a new line to the coke regions and if the projected line of the West Side Belt from Pittsburgh to Youngstown is built it will mean a new coke route for the valley furnaces, badly needed in every time of prosperity in the steel business.

There is another factor of value in this deal. A great tract of country to the south of Pittsburgh, well suited to suburban residences, has been undeveloped largely through lack of transportation facilities. It will be an easy matter for the Wabash, with its fine passenger station and facilities in Pittsburgh, to give a suburban service up the line of the West Side Belt as far as Clairton.

CHAFFEUR IS REARRESTED.

Police Department Pushes Case Against Man, Though Prosecuting Witnesses Object.

George Munson, the chauffeur who was arrested for fast driving in connection with the collision at Penn and Lang avenues, Thursday night, was rearrested yesterday on a charge of exceeding the speed limit. Munson was tried before Magistrate Negley yesterday morning and released for want of evidence to sustain the original charge.

Immediately after the man had left the magistrate's quarters, a telephone message came from Director Harry Moore, requesting that the case against Munson be pushed vigorously. The word came too late for that hearing, but there will be another one tomorrow morning. Munson was released after the second arrest on $300 bail. The object of the police department in pushing the case is to put an end, if possible, to anything like violation of the laws governing autos.

A peculiar feature in this case is that C. B. Lawton and the Murdock sisters, who were injured in the accident, have expressed regret that the chauffeur was arrested. The stated after the accident occurred that they much preferred nothing be done to Munson. They must appear against him.

WAR IS DECLARED ON MASHERS AND DOGS

War was declared on "mashers" and dogs by Homestead council last night. A resolution was passed instructing the borough police to arrest all men who are found annoying women on the streets. It is expected the police will reap a harvest in Eighth avenue, the masher's favorite thoroughfare. Provision was also made for the appointment of a borough dog catcher.

CONVICT CONFESSES TO CRIPPLE CREEK CRIME

Implicates Twelve Men With Him in Independence Station Murders.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

TOPEKA, KAS., Sept. 9.—B. F. Slagel, alias Romaine, a deported colored miner under arrest here for burglary, has confessed to the county attorney to complicity in the Independence depot explosion. Romaine gave the names of 12 men whom he alleges were implicated with him in the plot.

An effort will be made by the Colorado authorities to secure Romaine's extradition. Before this can be brought about, it will be necessary that Gov. Bailey grant Romaine a pardon from the Kansas penitentiary, where he was given an indeterminate sentence yesterday for burglary.

CRIPPLE CREEK, COL., Sept. 9.—The men whom Romaine implicates with himself are said to be former officers and members of miners' unions in this district. Only one of them, believed to be Charles G. Kennison, former president of the miners' union at Cripple Creek, is now in the county jail here charged with murder and conspiracy to murder in connection with the Independence depot explosion.

CANON CITY, COL., Sept. 9.—Sebert Romaine was sentenced to the state penitentiary from Pueblo for burglary in March, 1901, for two to four years. He was discharged July, 1903.

SUED BY LIGHT COMPANY.

John Simons Is Charged With Stealing Electric Power to Illuminate House.

At a hearing before Alderman McMasters yesterday afternoon John Simons of Braddock was held in $500 bail for court on a charge of misdemeanor, made by the Allegheny County Light Company. The company alleges that Simons rigged up a wire so that the house of Adam J. Bell at Braddock avenue and Seventh street, Braddock, would be supplied with light from the company's wires without cost. It is alleged light has been stolen for the Bell house for the last eight or nine months.

At the hearing Bell testified that the wire was arranged by Nicholas Simons, and that John Simons was only present one evening when the question of lighting the house by electricity was discussed. The wire from which the current was taken was stretched across Bell's house and supplied other houses nearby. The company's inspectors allege the wire connecting the light wire with Bell's house was arranged so that at night it could be thrown over the feed wire and form a circuit. The bright illumination of the Bell house caused the investigation. It is said that Nicholas Simons has disappeared.

The Simons were former employes of the light company.

SITE FINALLY SECURED.

Homestead Council Decides to Buy Coen Property for Town Hall.

Homestead council, at a meeting last night, decided to purchase the J. C. Coen plot in Amity street, near Tenth street, Homestead, as a site for the proposed town hall. The borough has had an option on the site for some time, but a disagreement arose as to the number of feet front. Coen finally decided to allow the borough option to cover 55 feet and the property was accepted, the borough paying $10,000 for it.

John Lamb, driver for the fire company of the Second ward, Homestead, was last night dismissed by council because there is no work for him. About three months ago the fire horses mysteriously disappeared from the Second ward house, and then the fire truck was taken away. Both team and truck were later located in Pittsburgh and sold. Lamb has been drawing $50 a month salary since the apparatus was taken away.

PRISONER ROLLED OVER HILL.

Slav Was Brought to Jail in Scant Attire and Badly Bruised.

Clad in scant attire, Peter Kauza, a Slav, was committed to jail last night by Constable Charles H. Tyler after both had rolled down the steep hillside above Forward avenue. The prisoner was covered with cuts and bruises and was brought in securely handcuffed.

Kauza was arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman P. B. Reilly on information made by Mary Vemitisz. He made a desperate effort to escape, but the constable clinched and the two plunged headlong over the hill. Kauza's friend brought a coat and other clothes for him, but the constable would not trust the removal of his handcuffs.

WILL STAND AT TIE-LING

describes the horrible plight of the tentless and shelterless soldiers.

The detailed statement of Russian losses, which it is promised will be issued Saturday, is awaited with intense interest. The general expectation is that the losses will approximate 20,000, as against 30,000 for the Japanese.

The work of burying the dead was left to the Japanese, who were forced to attempt the task as a matter of self-preservation, but it was almost impossible. The awful rains have handicapped the work of cremation, on which the Japanese relied, and only shallow trench burials were possible under the circumstances. Not only is the work one of the greatest difficulty, but it is almost valueless from a sanitary point of view, the storms undoing it soon after it is accomplished.

The care of the wounded has taxed the hospitals to the utmost. One correspondent says that 12,000 wounded had passed through the Mukden hospitals up to Sunday and only the most severe cases could be attended to by the nurses and surgeons. Many, therefore, had to be left to the rough but well-meant care of their comrades.

Strength at Liao-Yang.

Now that the battle of Liao-Yang belongs within the domain of history, officers of the general staff are more disposed to discuss some of the circumstances of the fight. Gen. Kuropatkin's army at Liao-Yang consisted of 200 battalions of infantry, 147 squadrons of cavalry and 700 guns, approximately 168,000 bayonets, 15,600 sables and 10,000 gunners. Portions of two European corps and one Siberian corps had been left at Mukden and a number of these reserves were brought into the fight. The Japanese army's actual fighting force is supposed to have had a superiority in numbers of from 50,000 to 60,000 men, and a considerable superiority, also, in artillery.

One of the chief advantages possessed by Field Marshal Oyama, according to the Russian experts, consisted in the greater elasticity in movement and in handling, on account of the three separate armies of Gens. Kuroki, Oku and Nodzu. Kuropatkin, very late, also introduced the same system, after a fashion, when he created the eastern and southern armies under the respective commands of Gens. Ivanoff and Zaroubaleff, but these armies had not been acting independently for months, while the Japanese armies had been so acting.

On his arrival at the seat of war Lieut.-Gen. Bilderling of the Seventeenth army corps, took over the command of Gen. Ivanoff, who though a seasoned and tried commander, familiar with his men, with the field of battle and with the tactics of the Japanese, had to give away to a man older in years, who possessed none of these advantages. The change in commanders at such a critical time is considered here to have been extremely unfortunate. Although it is admitted that the eastern army had to face Kuroki, who has earned a reputation as the most skilful of the Japanese leaders, the poor showing which it made in comparison with the southern army, under Zaroubaleff, perhaps not altogether unjustifiably, might be attributed to this change of commanders, and the battle might have been won if Bilderling had been able to duplicate in the east the splendid fight which Zaroubaleff made against Oku.

WILL RAISE THE MAINE FOR PERMANENT MEMORIAL

Company Incorporated to Take the Wreck of the Battleship from Havana Harbor.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Articles of incorporation of the United States Battleship Maine Salvage Company were filed today with a capital stock of $600,000. Incorporators, Joseph De Wyckoff, Clarence R. Wilson and Samuel S. Paschal.

The purpose of the corporation is to raise the wreck of the Maine in Havana harbor, in accordance with the engineering plans of Corthell, Bond & Davis, and to donate to some organization or the United States government sufficient material from the wreck for the building and erection of a permanent memorial, made wholly of such material.

The plans of this company will probably necessitate action by congress, relinquishing the property right of the government in the wreck of the Maine.

CZAR'S AUNT IS TOLD OF RED CROSS WORK

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10, 6:30 a. m.—A telegram from Murden to the grand duchess, Marie Pavlovna, aunt of the emperor, on the work of the Red Cross, says that 50 wounded officers and 2,500 men were cared for at the roadside stations on the way to the hospitals at Mukden.

LITTLE SPOILS AT LIAO-YANG

Japanese Failed to Get Badly Needed Engines—Neither Commander Showed Skill.

RUSSIANS MAY GET SOME AID

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Times this morning prints a dispatch dated at Pekin from a correspondent lately with Gen. Oku's army which says:

"Liao-Yang at sunrise on September 4 presented a dismal spectacle. The Russian settlement was burning and overhung with a pall of smoke. The scared Chinese were in hiding, and the deadbeat Japanese were bivouacing in the suburbs. Not a shot was fired inside the barricade that day, and not a Russian left, except a few deserters disguised as Chinese. The town was not greatly damaged by the shell fire, but all the European shops and the wealthy Chinese residences had been sacked by the Tenth Siberian rifles. Over 50 Chinese were killed by the Japanese shells.

Spoils Insignificant.

"The Japanese spoils of war were insignificant. They got no locomotives, which they urgently needed, and which would have been more valuable to them than artillery. The Japanese divisional commander attempted to pursue the Russians and managed to secure a bridge but his troops were too fatigued to effect anything. I cannot give any details of the fighting north of Liao-Yang because I have to leave immediately for China to send an account of the great battle."

The correspondent proceeds in a critical vein, promising that his information is somewhat incomplete owing to the great extent of the operations. He says that after what he read in the papers of Japanese tactics and strategy, he is compelled to confess that what he saw in practice fell short of his expectations.

"My honest opinion," says the correspondent, "is that there was nothing strategically excellent in the handling of either army, although Kuropatkin can claim to have defeated the main object of the Japanese operations.

Both Make Mistakes.

"The Russians obviously in their tactics cling to the cardinal error of overmanning their defensive positions, while the sole spirit of the Japanese tactics, as illustrated under Oku, was sledge-hammer frontal attacks.

"I am satisfied that Oku commands the finest infantry in the world. I do not believe that any other army could in five days deliver eight unsuccessful infantry assaults against entrenchments and still preserve. I know nothing of the cavalry of either belligerent and have no evidence that the mounted branches accomplished anything anywhere during the Liao-Yang campaign.

"It is probable that Kuropatkin will now take up a position somewhere on the Harbin road and that the Japanese army will be compelled to rest at Mukden, and if the report of the advance of Lieut.-Gen. Linevitch should be true, Kuroki may find it necessary to base himself on the same line of communications as Oku and Nodzu."

CONDEMNS WAYNE MACVEAGH.

Wealthy Gentleman Farmer Charges Him With Causing Farmers to Shoot at Automobiles.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—(Special.)—In the opinion of Edmund B. Lewis, a wealthy gentleman-farmer of Malvern, the comments made recently by Wayne MacVeagh of Bryn Mawr, formerly United States attorney general, in discussing the speed madness of automobilists, are responsible for the lawlessness of the farmers who shot at automobiles.

Discussing Mr. MacVeagh's assertion that he thought the crime was increasing in lower Merion and that the poorer classes were encouraged to crime by the lawlessness of the rich automobilists, Mr. Lewis declares emphatically that Mr. MacVeagh himself has been encouraging lawlessness in others. Mr. Lewis also expresses the opinion that more lives are placed in jeopardy daily by drivers of horses, and that there should be strict regulations regarding the driving of horses by incompetent persons.

BID THROWN OUT.

Pittsburgh Men, Competing on Million Dollar Job, Neglected to Comply With Formalities.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—The Cincinnati water works board opened new bids today for work on the completion of the new reservoirs at California, a suburb of Cincinnati. Keeling & Ridge of Pittsburgh were the low bidders. Their bid, including an enjoined item of asphalt, was $1,160,000, or about $103,000 above the engineer's estimate.

The bid of the Pittsburgh contractors, however, is informal and must be rejected, because the bond was not made out on the form supplied by the board, but was on a separate piece of paper, not attached to the bid.

FORCING PARKER INTO CAMPAIGN

Demand Is Made That Democratic Presidential Candidate Take the Stump.

WORK IS NOT TO HIS LIKING

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.

Chairman Thomas Taggart admitted today that the Democratic National committee was considering the project of putting Judge Parker on the stump.

"There has been a great demand for Mr. Parker to make speeches, and many of the editors attending the conference want him to take the stump," said Mr. Taggart, "but it hasn't been decided yet."

It is said Judge Parker does not take kindly to the idea of making a speaking tour, and many of those high in party councils share this view. So while the matter is under advisement the best opinion is that there will be no stumping tour, though it is possible the Democratic standard bearer may make one or more speeches.

There is every reason to believe that Judge Parker will arrangements to come to New York for temporary residence soon after his formal letter of acceptance is made public. It is known that leading Democrats have strongly represented to him that his continued presence at such an inconvenient location as Rosemont, with no hotel accommodation, has kept Judge Parker from personal contact with many prominent men who are frequently in New York city, but who have not time for the journey to Esopus. The plan has even progressed as far as the making of tentative arrangements for him to take a suite of rooms here. According to those close in Judge Parker's counsels his idea is to be immediately in touch with the party leaders and accessible to those whom it is needful and desirable to meet as the campaign progresses.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 9.—Democratic candidate for the vice presidency, former Senator Henry G. Davis, stopped off in Baltimore today. He met and had a conference with United States Senator A. P. Gorman at Hotel Rennert during the early afternon, and later visited some of his personal friends in the city. Senator Davis declined to discuss politics, his only reference to the coming campaign being, "I think we shall win." Mr. Davis intends to leave here for New York city tomorrow to have a conference with National Chairman Taggart and other Democratic leaders.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Sept. 9.—This was Democratic day at the Chautauqua county fair and several thousand people were present. Prof. Duncan McGregor of Pittsburgh, was the principal speaker. He reviewed the life of Judge Parker. In closing he said:

"I firmly believe that unless the principles of Democracy which gave her birth, are allowed to exercise their God-given functions in this government, imperialism in time will hurl our Goddess of Liberty from her throne."

FATALLY WOUNDS HIMSELF.

Man Claiming to Be from Pittsburgh Cuts Throat With Razor While on a Train.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Seized with a sudden fit of insanity, Henry Pfeiffer of Pittsburgh, tried to shoot himself while on a Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh train this evening. The revolver would not work and Pfeiffer cut his throat with a razor, inflicting fatal wounds before he was overpowered. He was removed to a hospital here in a dying condition. Pfeiffer gives his address as No. 46 Newton street, Pittsburgh.

Henry Pfeiffer's name does not appear in the Pittsburgh directory.

One Small Jewish Disturbance.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 9.—The ministry of the interior says no reports of extensive anti-Jewish disturbances in several of the governments of Southwest Russia have been received. The only recent disturbance, it is added, was a small affair at Bicla, near Kieff, in which no one was killed.

IMMIGRATION LAWS ENFORCED

Commissioner Sargent Says Infractions Are on the Decrease.

CRITICISMS ARE ANSWERED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Room 16, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.

Despite the fact that considerable more stringent legislation will be recommended, the report of Mr. Sargent, commissioner of immigration, to be issued next month, will show a marked decrease in infractions of the immigration laws now existing.

"Since the first of July, at which time this department was vested with greater executive authority, conditions have greatly improved," says Mr. Sargent. "This is particularly true in regard to Chinese immigration. We now have a system whereby duplicates of all certificates issued to Chinese are kept in Washington and thereby frauds are easily detected. We have found that under the old system there were many cases of loss and disappearance of certificates that were strange, to say the least.

"We think that we will show in our report much evidence tending to counteract the criticism which has come from some quarters in regard of the strict enforcement of immigration laws. We have never been more strict than during the last year and we believe that the results will speak for themselves. We believe that strict enforcement of the laws is what congress wants. They have given us the laws and the means and we are doing the rest."

Mr. Sargent says that in the Chinese laws he will recommend changes pertaining to the native-born children clause of which advantage is being taken to a great extent. He will also repeat, and with stronger emphasis, his recommendations of last year that stricter laws be passed regarding the class of immigrants admitted.

Body Recovered from Wreck.

The body of Fireman D. M. Griffith, who was killed in the Baltimore & Ohio wreck at Zelienople Wednesday, was brought to the city last evening and turned over to Undertaker John Semelrock to be prepared for burial. The remains will be sent to his home at Staunton, W. Va.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Allegheny Preparatory school reopens September 21, 1904. The head master will be at the school office after September 8, between 9 a. m. and 1 p. m., to meet and classify pupils, to talk with intending patrons and to show those who may wish to see them the building and equipment. The school provides instruction for boys and girls from the first year of school life till they are ready for any American college or university. The work is done by 15 expert teachers.

A well equipped gymnasium and a large playground, under the exclusive control of the school, offer ample opportunity for sports and games. These are individual "corrective work," under trained directors, give the physical development of both boys and girls its due emphasis. Oral expression, singing, reading aloud, public speaking and debates have their proper place in the curriculum.

Owing to its non-commercial character, the entire income of the school can be applied in making the school better. The building has just been redecorated throughout.

For our new circular and any further information, address the head master, Wilmot R. Jones, 906 Lincoln Avenue, Allegheny, Pa.

Allegheny Public Safety Director Will Not Talk About Disappearance of Records.

HAS NOT BEEN SUBPOENAED

Director Scandrett of Allegheny, who has been sought by deputies wishing to serve him with a subpoena requiring his appearance at the Tschume case, has taken the offensive and declares he is after Attorney John Marron more earnestly than the latter has pursued him since last Tuesday. Scandrett returned from the Wheeling races yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Before arriving in the city he had outlined his plan of attack, and, according to his story, immediately started out on a hunt for Marron. The latter was in Alderman S. J. Toole's office, where Scandrett says he met him.

"I asked Mr. Marron where the subpoena was," said Scandrett, "and he told me one of his deputies had it and was looking for me."

The director was about city hall in Allegheny last night, but the deputy with the subpoena had not caught up with him at a late hour. When asked what he knew of the disappearance of the records belonging to Nelson C. Starkey, the director had nothing to say. He refused to say whether or not he had seen the papers, or to deny the assertion of Mr. Marron that they had been taken to a stenographer near city hall, where a copy was made of them, and the originals destroyed. Scandrett did not know whether he would attend the Tschume hearing.

"I'll go if I am subpoenaed," he said.

The prosecution has summoned a small army of witnesses who will be called upon to testify this morning to the alleged operations of Tschume and his agents in the district where speakeasies and disorderly houses are tolerated. It was said yesterday that from a liquor dealer familiar with the trade done in the lower wards, the Anti-Saloon league had received figures showing that the alleged graft from the sale of liquor in the First and Fourth wards amounts to $1,000 a week. This sum is the proceeds of "the extra 25 cents" charged on each case of beer sold. An effort will be made to ascertain where this extra 25 cents goes and who is profiting by it.

SOUSA CONTINUES HIT.

WILL HAVE WALKS AND LAWNS.

Grounds About New Municipal Hospital to Be Handsomely Decorated.

Director Moore of the department of public safety, Supt. Moore of the bureau of health and Supt. Burke of the city parks yesterday visited the Municipal hospital. It is the intention to lay out the grounds in walks and lawns.

The work on the new buildings is about finished. In the old buildings the windows were without blinds. A smallpox patient should be kept in a dark room, as the light has serious effect on the eyes. Pieces of blankets were hung over the windows in the old hospital to darken the rooms, but in the new building a dark blue window shade will be placed in all the wards.

The contract between the city and the hospitals expires at the end of this year. After that time all typhoid and scarlet fever cases will be treated at the Municipal hospital. Only cases requiring surgical treatment will be sent to the hospitals.

WELL DRESSED YOUNG MAN IS ACCUSED OF ASSAULT

An assault was made on Miss Bertha Walker, aged 16 years, at the home of her father, George Walker, 6601 Rowan avenue, East End, yesterday morning. An unknown assailant entered the house while the girl was working and dragged her from the kitchen to the second floor. Miss Walker managed to extricate herself after a hard struggle and rushed to the side window down stairs, where she screamed for help. The cries brought four mounted officers and two special policemen from the East End station. The vicinity is being searched for the man, who is described as young and well dressed.

A petition will be presented at the October meetings of Braddock and Rankin councils.

Fire Recalls a Tragedy.

Fire caused about $6,000 damage to the hardware store of the Weaver Hardware Company in Glassport yesterday morning. The loss was caused principally by water and is partly covered by insurance. The fire originated from defective flues. The building is the same one in which W. E. Weaver and Mrs. Weaver and the former's partner were suffocated by a defective heater last winter.

GLAD THE STRIKE IS OVER WITH THE PACKERS

Settlement of the western meat strike, according to local packers and butchers, will have no effect on meat prices, and the situation is to be little different from that of a month ago. Prices settled down following the assurance of Pittsburgh concerns that they could supply a big share of the local demand for fresh meat. People became frightened and ate less meat during the strike, and that also had the effect of staving off more advanced prices. The strike at Chicago is said to have had a generally bad effect on business, and meat men here are gratified over the settlement.

Trimmed Tailored Hats for Women.

New Arrivals in These Ready-to-Wear Hats at $4.00, $5.00, $7.50

Candidly these new arrivals should sell for $5.00, $6.00 and $9.00—but we wish to interest all women in Pittsburgh in good styles and high-class millinery at lowest prices—of course the low prices to be consistent with best quality. We question very much whether such values were ever offered before in any millinery house in Greater Pittsburg. And they are not the only underprice values by any means. See the following:

Ready to trim new styles in black, as well as white—hats that are now commonly known as Fold Chiffon Hats. There are large picture styles, medium types and toque effects—either a well approved Autumn shape. $3.50 and $5.00 are the prices, the values being $5.00 and $6.50.

The new Autumn Foliage and Roses include the latest Paris tones—Coq de Roche, Nicoba, Rusty, Wood, Terra Cotta, Mousse and other desirable tints. Our prices are $1.00 and $1.25 per bunch.

New Coque Breasts, made on wire to insure good wear, 75c and $1.00 each.
New Pompons in all the leading shades, together with black, 25c to 75c each.

Man and His Hat.

Some unknown philosopher once said: "Put a decent hat on a man's head and a respectable pair of shoes on his feet, and it doesn't make much difference about the other requisites of dress." That's a matter of opinion, but there are no two ways about it, a man that is well hatted has seven or eight points to the good in stylish dress.

We make bold to say we sell better hats, more stylish hats for less money than any other hat house in the city.

So far as the quality of our hats is concerned there is no question but what they are first class, for they are from the factories of the best hat makers in this country.

Will you let us convince you today of what is said above?

Derbies and Soft Hats, latest Autumn blocks, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00—worth $1.00 more in each case.

About Our New $1.00 Shirts.

Saturday, September 10, 1904.

Chairman Alcorn has called the Democratic county executive committee to meet and complete the ticket. This means there is an end to all hope or prospect of fusion this year. The Democracy will put a full ticket of its own in the field and suffer its customary defeat with what stoicism it can command. There is an end to the Citizens party movement, so completely diverted from its original purpose and so thoroughly discredited with the people. No tears will be shed over its taking off, though the public must suffer for a time its continuance in official control.

Though Chairman Penrose has announced he will not appoint an umpire to decide the contest in the Franklin-Huntingdon senatorial district, the conferees remain obstinate and have again failed to nominate. In the interest of the party in that section, one of the candidates, or both, should get out of the race and permit a nomination to be made at once. The interest of the party is greater than that of any man. The contestants in this case are both worthy citizens, no doubt deserving of the honor sought. But they should both consider their party and not themselves at this juncture and find a way to end the deadlock.

News comes from Jackson, Miss., that Starling Dunham, supposed to have been burned at the stake at Europa last year, is now under arrest. Apparently the Europa mob wrought its vengeance upon an innocent man. This discovery should put an end to the business of lynching, but we have small hope that it will. Persons who believe in lynching, or regard burning as a proper means of meting out justice, are hardly capable of appreciating the enormity of the crime perpetrated when an innocent man is put to the torture. Some education in the principles of humanity is needed at the south before lynching will be abandoned as a pastime.

Great Britain has concluded a treaty with Tibet and Col. Younghusband's expedition will begin the return journey to India without delay. The treaty does not bear the signature of the dalai llama, who, it is said, has fled into Mongolia and has abdicated. The instrument is executed by the llamas in authority, indorsed by the Chinese resident administrator, and may be regarded as binding as if it had been signed by the absent high priest. It is mild in its terms and will probably be observed by the Tibetans to prevent a return of the British soldiers. The really valuable achievement of the British expedition is the penetration of Tibet to Lassa and the fund of information obtained. It is probable that may be worth the price.

There is yet much doubt surrounding the situation in Manchuria. The St. Petersburg war office reiterates its belief that Kuropatkin has extricated his army from its perilous position, but reports to the contrary persist. It is believed in some quarters that the Japanese advance columns have passed the Russians both to the east and west and are approaching Tie-Ling and that the Russians will find themselves outflanked at that position. If this be true, the movement must have been made by troops not engaged at Liao-Yang, for those troops must be as weary as the retreating Russians. The losses on both sides since August 24, when the operations against Liao-Yang began, will certainly aggregate more than 50,000 men, and it is now believed they are about evenly divided between the two forces.

It is rather unfortunate that the plea of lack of time was made part of the defense in the mandamus case against Controller Larkin, as it will be apt to create the impression that his antagonism was unreasonable. It puts him in an absurd light to argue that he has not found time to examine a payroll that has been held up since last July. If he has a good defense it is not lack of official ability but lack of official authority. If no legal appropriation has been made for the filtration bureau then the controller acted properly and the city is temporarily in the position of being unable to pay just claims against it. The difficulty is most unfortunate for public interests, as it is highly desirable that the filtration bureau shall prepare the plans for the work as rapidly as possible so that contracts can be let. The increase in the number of filters, and especially the change from open filters to covered has necessitated entirely new plans which must be worked out in exact detail before bids can be invited. It is hard to keep good men when they cannot get their pay, and the bureau has lost a number of engineers, but the chief has been able to maintain a competent staff so far. The hold-up of the payroll has not delayed the progress of the plans, but for lack of sufficient men the staff has had to work overtime, giving three nights a week to their task as well as extra time by day.

An Important Merger.

Purchase of the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad and Coal Company and the West Side Belt Line railroad by the Wabash interests is at last officially announced. The deal has been pending for some time and the transaction must be regarded as the most important to Pittsburgh that has been made this year. The purchase of this property will put the Wabash system immediately in touch with the greatest manufacturing plants in this region—those of the Jones & Laughlins and Carnegie companies—and many others besides, including the Union Steel Company. In fact, it simplifies the matter of getting access to nearly all of the great tonnage producers in the Monongahela valley.

The significance of this lies in the fact that a revival of industrial activity is imminent. All of the railroads that enter this region are preparing for a heavy traffic movement this fall and this may swell toward the proportions of the demand made on transportation facilities three years ago, which resulted in disastrous congestion. The Wabash system is now in position to take its share of the traffic and to relieve conditions in as far as its western lines are capable of doing. Had it not made this purchase the same conditions could not have been brought about for two years at least, probably three.

Pittsburgh is interested indirectly in the matter. It has welcomed the coming of the Wabash because it needed additional facilities for moving its tonnage. It rejoices because that system is now able to perform its useful function. The price paid for the property is possibly larger than the cost of construction of equal terminals, but, if this be so, immediate availability is worth more than the possible difference. The Terminal and Belt system was well conceived and fits in admirably with the necessities of the Wabash. Coupled with the stupendous improvements in the facilities of other roads in this district it marks a new era in Pittsburgh transportation history.

The Business Situation.

The opinion was expressed in The Gazette some time ago that the dullness in the iron trade had lasted long enough to prove that consumers would not place orders at the nominal quotations made by the pools, and that price concessions must be made in order to get business. It was also suggested that improvement in the iron trade would beget improvement in other directions and that the circle would continue widening until the benefits were felt in general trade. A verification of this view occurred this week. The announcement of a reduction in prices for various descriptions of iron and steel had hardly been made before an order was issued by the Pennsylvania railroad for the resumption of work in its shops between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. The order affects about 20,000 man, who have been either idle or on short working hours since last June. This order has a broader significance than at first appears. The Pennsylvania is probably the greatest railroad in the United States. In its operation it touches more varied interests than any other, and its prosperity is very closely bound up with the prosperity of the United States Steel Corporation, which is the greatest industrial orgsnization in the world. It is not unreasonable to couple the resumption of works in the Pennsylvania shops with the inference that the management sees ahead an increase in traffic that will call for additional motive power and car service. After the first regular payday following the resumption of work the effects will be felt in mercantile circles, and this will extend to other interests.

The returns of the country's pig iron production, which were published during the week, reflected the healthier condition of the industry. According to the Iron Age's figures, the weekly output of furnaces on September 1 was 46,000 tons larger than a month ago, while furnace stocks decreased approximately 60,000 tons during the past month, showing that consumption had overtaken production. There are no reliable statistics bearing upon the increase in actual orders for finished material, but there must have been an improvement in this respect else extensive preparations for a larger business would not have been made. The one thing which is apparent to all observers is that sentiment regarding the future is again very cheerful.

The result of the state elections held during the week must also be added to the favorable side of the account. The result strengthens confidence in Republican success in November, and business men will feel that they may go ahead with their calculations for the future in the assurance that they will not be disturbed by political changes.

The remarkable upward movement in the stock market was unchecked throughout the week. Scores of securities advanced to the highest prices of the year, and the volume of dealings increased. The market is now assuming a breadth that will justify railroad and other corporations in floating securities long held in their treasuries awaiting a favorable opportunity, and the proceeds will be used for buying supplies and making extensions. In the commodity markets there was some irregularity. In the early part of the week cotton advanced on account of the deterioration reported in the government weather bulletin, but the certainty that the total yield will be above the average forced a reaction in prices. Wheat and corn advanced, but this was more on the speculative situation than on changes in legitimate condition. The yield of wheat in the United States will be below the average and the yield of corn will not be as large as indicated two months ago, but if the late planted corn escapes early frosts the harvest will be satisfactory.

There was a slight rise in call loan rates during the week, but the maximum reached was so far below the average for the season that the incident was entirely without significance. It is certain that rates will be higher during the last quarter of the year, but it is almost equally certain that the fall of 1904 will be exceptionally free from disturbance in the money market at home and abroad.

Can Do Without Them.

Harper's Weekly expresses the opinion that the chief danger to the Republican ticket lies in the lack of a big campaign fund to hire party workers to bring the vote out. It says that the Republican party will have nothing like the fund available in 1896 and in 1900 and remarks "there are two reasons why we consider that in this condition lies the chief menace of Republican prospects. One is that there exists no common peril making possible the raising of so great a fund, and the other is that Mr. Cortelyou would not know what to do with it if he had it."

It certainly appears that Chairman Cortelyou's reliance is upon the appeal to public reason and not upon manufactured noise and mercenary enthusiasm, but the Cortelyou method is getting there with an effect which astonishes the old school of campaigners. Such was the quiet of the Vermont campaign that it was mistaken for apathy, but while there was no noise and excitement, strong speeches were being made, addressed to the intelligence of the people. The speech of Secretary Taft at Montpelier on the Philippine policy of the administration was an admirable specimen of cogent reasoning, free from any trace of sophistry or clap-trap. The people listened to speeches of that character or read them in the papers and reached conclusions by sober thought. Then on election day they turned out and rolled up a plurality which exceeded calculations by from six to seven thousand. No brass band campaign with hired shouters could have been anything like so successful.

Instead of endangering Republican success, as Harper's Weekly supposes, the present circumstances of party management are so favorable that the Democratic managers feel the necessity of meeting the situation by a corresponding change in their own methods. The Vermont election returns exhibit in a very ridiculous light the Democratic plan of making a bogey of President Roosevelt and running an alarmist campaign. The fact is being realized that it is useless to try to persuade the people to change the policy of the government unless a rational argument is given for doing so. The advisability of Judge Parker's determination not to make any speeches is now loudly questioned and he is being plainly told that if he wants to be elected he must have something to say for himself. His position is altogether unlike that of President Roosevelt. The latter has a record upon which he asks judgment; Judge Parker is an unknown quantity and the people want to know its value. Mr. Cortelyou may not know how to hire a corps of mercenaries, but he has been able to put the campaign upon a plane where he can do without them, and where the Democratic party will have to meet him in order to put up a real fight.

Prof. Duncan McGregor of Pittsburgh gave a resounding toot upon the Democratic horn at a county fair in New York yesterday. He believes that "unless the principles of Democracy are allowed to exercise their God-given functions Imperialism will hurl our Goddess of Liberty from her throne." It is a case which evidently calls for cooling applications.

Gen. Baldwin of the United States army has ordered 12 companies of the Second infantry to be in readiness to go to Cripple Creek, where some excited citizens are threatening to disregard the injunctions of the federal court. They will find that Uncle Sam is not to be fooled with.

The New York Democratic committee claims to have perfected an organization by which they will have 50,000 men working actively for Parker and there is one of them who can state his views upon any subject but the gold standard, in which his party does not agree with him.

The slogan with which Bryan is inspiring the western Democracy is that by the election of Parker the country will be rid of the Philippines and then the party can return to "the economic issues" now in the background because of Parker's gold sentiments.

Now that the speech to the editors also has turned out to be a blank cartridge the hope of the Democrats is that when Judge Parker fires off his letter of acceptance there will be something in it.

Republic Iron and Steel officials deny the reports of merger with the United States Steel Corporation. This is conclusive that no merger has been effected—at least none has been completed.

Discovery in Mississippi that a mob lynched the wrong man causes no remorse. In the Mississippi cult it calls for another lynching bee to get the right man.

If Judge Parker succeeds in saying as little in his letter of acceptance as he has in his speeches, he will win the championship in that line.

Prince Peter Mirsky, who succeeds von Plehve as minister of the interior, will go into retirement until the monument celebration is over.

It is hardly credible that the Russians should attack women and children on Senshu island. That would be more like the Turks.

Pittsburgh builds the docks at New Orleans and occupies them.

The Quiet Observer

By ERASMUS WILSON.

My friend, have you heard of the town of Nogood,
On the banks of the River Slow,
Where blooms the Waitawhile flower fair,
Where the Sometimesorother scents the air,
And the soft Goeasys grow?

It lies in the valley of Whatstheuse
In the province of Let'erslide;
Thattiredfeeling is native there,
It's the home of the reckless Idon'tcare,
Where the Giveitups abide.

There are a lot of people who seem to have come from the town of Nogood, and some who seem to be going there.

Are you a Nogooder, or are you out of that class?

This is a direct question addressed to you personally. No offense intended, nor will any be taken by those who are of some good, while those who are of no good can have but little to say.

Hints are all right in right places, but you have to jolt some people pretty hard before they come to realize that you are knocking—Paddy's mint, as they used to say.

Are you any good?

Is that plain enough, and clear enough, and direct enough to suit your case?

If so, you may proceed to make answer, and make it true, for it will appear in your final account. Tell it to yourself in confidence unless you find that you have good cause for being proud of yourself.

* * * * *

The value of self-examination is not well known, which accounts for so many conducting themselves in a careless, sloppy manner.

You know men and women who could be much better in many ways were they to think seriously about themsives. Good-hearted, maybe, and respectable, but lacking in downright goodness their influence amounts to very little in the community in which they live. They know well enough how to be good, but somehow they just settle down among the Nogoods.

This doesn't often happen to those who were well reared, for good and worthy parents would hardly be guilty of sending children out into the world who are no good. And yet you may find among the best, just as you may find cheat, cockle and smut in almost every field of wheat. These were not sown intentionally and possibly not sown at all, but they got there just the same.

You may have wondered how the children of good people sometimes turn out to be so bad.

Careless or injudicious methods of cultivation are mainly responsible for the presence of cheat, cockle and smut in a wheat field.

* * * * *

Every boy and girl capable of knowing when their hands and faces are clean ought to be able to know when they are smutty in their talk and conduct.

Some boys and girls there are who don't seem to care a snap if their faces and hands are as black as a pot, and having no one to teach them the value of personal cleanliness they grow up to be dirty folks.

Practically the same thing happens to those who either don't know when they are smutty, or don't care, and they grow up to be vulgar in their tastes, profane in their talk and untidy in their general appearance.

These naturally belong in the town of Nogood, and if not already located there they soon will be.

Are your boys vulgar, profane or untidy in dress and style?

It is too bad if they are, for they are on their way to this miserable town of Nogood, so-called because no good thing is to be found there.

How about your girls? Are they clean of tongue, pleasing in manners and tidy in their outward appearance?

And about yourself? But then you are to find out and answer to yourself and to your God.

My friend, from the dead-alive town of Nogood
If you would keep far away,
Just follow your duty through good and ill,
Take this for your motto, "I can, I will,"
And live up to it each day.

—William Edward Penny.

Do you think it would be a good scheme to have laws passed compelling people to do right, whether they know how or not? Teaching alone seems to have failed in a great measure.

Speaking of laws for the protection, control and punishment of persons not capable of taking proper care of themselves calls to mind some of the ancient laws for animals, for at an early period in history animals were made subject to law.

The Levitical law was both explicit and comprehensive concerning the treatment of animals, a summary of which is gathered from the Albany Law Journal:

The ass lying under the burden was to be helped. (Exod. 23:5; Deut. 22:4.) Rest on the Sabbath was enjoined for cattle as well as man; and no work on that day was to be done by either. (Exod. 23:12; Deut. 5:14.) The bird was not to be taken with its young (Deut. 22:6-7); animals of unequal strength were not to be made to work together (Ibid. 10); and the ox, when working, was not to be deprived of its proper food. (Deut. 30:4).

By the law of ancient Egypt, to kill a beast wilfully was punishable with death; accidentally it was finable.

In India, where belief in metempsychosis prevails, the like consideration has been shown them for centuries.

Animals were prosecuted in courts of justice between the thirteenth and seventeenth centuries for injuries by them to human beings or private property, and were subjected in due form of law to trial, judgment and sentenced—the latter often that of death in a cruel manner.

This singular practice arose partly from a desire to apply the lex talionis in judicial form to the offending animal, and partly from superstition. Where the animal was capable of physical seizure it was formally arrested and brought before the court and then imprisoned in the ordinary prison of the place. The public prosecutor prepared a formal accusation. Witnesses were then examined and their depositions taken as to the truth of the charge. The judge thereupon rendered judgment and passed sentence of death, which was executed in public with great formality, the animal being dressed in the clothes of a man. The mode of death was by burning, hanging by the legs, mutilation or maiming and varied according to the nature of the offense committed.

Cases of the kind were frequent in France between A. D. 1266 and A. D. 1792. Hogs to the number of 17, as appears by the court records, were hung, drawn and quartered for mutilating and devouring infants in their cradles. Bulls were in a like manner tried and condemned for goring human beings. In 1499 one was hung until dead "for having furiously killed a young lad of 14 or 15 years." Horses also, in 1389, were condemned to death for having killed men. A case of this kind occurred at Dijon in that year.

In Sardinia, in 1395, wild or domestic cattle taken damage feasant could be lawfully killed. Asses were treated with less severity. For the first offense of trespassing on a strange field one ear was cut off; for a second offense the other ear; for the third offense the animal was confiscated to the crown.

The Gazette desires to call special attention to the Editorial Section of The Sunday Gazette of September 11, which will contain two articles of notable interest to theater-goers. Both articles have reference to the present tendency on the part of purveyors of melodrama to the use of vicious and misleading titles.

In the name of public decency The Gazette will protest against the apathy which has permitted certain theatrical producers to go from bad to worse in their efforts to exploit their plays by making use of titles revolting to public taste and conscience.

In the two articles above referred to The Gazette will deal specifically and pointedly with this evil and in calling attention to its insidious and far-reaching effects on public morals, asks an expression of public sentiment on this subject.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The visit of William Waldorf Astor of London to this city is stirring up the Single Taxers. They look upon him as a more or less beautiful object lesson. He is an absentee landlord, they say, come to take a look over his property. It may be, of course, that he is here for no such purpose; that, as the story goes, he merely made the trip so as to avoid the unpleasant necessity of attending his daughter's wedding; but, nevertheless, the largest real estate owner in New York may be expected to take a little interest in his property. Would it be revolutionary and wicked to mention the fact that there are thousands of good Americans passing out good money in big wads to this Englishman for the privilege of living in New York?

Mr. Astor is the largest single taxpayer in the city of New York, which is perhaps why he will never become a Single Taxer. He owns some of the very choicest property in the city and so greatly has this enhanced in value in the five years since he was last here that he is worth $25,000,000 more now than then. When he said, as he did in an interview, "More great fortunes are made in real estate than in Wall street," he knew what he was talking about.

Fearful Feats of Chauffeurs.

Broadway at night is a speedway for automobiles. No attention at all seems to be paid to the law regulating speed. The other night I saw an automobile setting the pace for a bicyclist and "nary a cop" interfered. Some of the feats performed by chauffeurs are fearful and wonderful. A man takes his life in his hands every time he steps from a street car, for an automobile is liable to switch from the tracks just at that moment and go swinging up the street between car and wagon with next to no margin. Arrests are comparatively rare save when an accident occurs. Is it wonderful then that people are sometimes tempted to take the law into their own hands?

All of the autos that exceed the speed limit are owned by men who keep them for their own pleasure. Sometimes the owners are in the "devil wagons" when accidents are met with. Just as often the chauffeurs are showing their friends what the auto can do. When an accident comes fear follows in its wake. The chauffeur, scared at the possibilities of popular wrath, gives another exhibition of speed greater than that which caused the damage, and then there follows a mad and irresponsible mob, Judge Lynch among them. A man was dragged a block by an automobile yesterday in Seventh avenue and then the chauffeur jumped from the vehicle and ran a couple of blocks with a shouting mob at his heels.

Essay on Recklessness.

It is always the private automobile and never the business one that does damage, and the statement is a complete essay on recklessness. There are ever so many business automobiles in the city. They are to be met with at all times, and all places, cluttering along at a fair but not excessive rate of speed, always thoroughly controlled by the man at the lever. There are brewery wagons, parcel delivery wagons and last, but not least, observation automobiles. (Some of the brewery autos bear the sign "Hell Gate Brewery," Let the temperance people say whether there is anything in a name.)

Observation automobiles have become an institution. Through the day one may "see New York," and hear all about it through a megaphone. The automobile is peculiarly adapted to the man with the megaphone, for this last dread instrument of torture would assuredly scare a horse. In the evening one may take a trip to Chinatown and visit joss houses and sample chop suey in Chinese restaurants; and all for the modest sum of $2. Now each of these "business chauffeurs" has an objective point, and presumably wishes to make it as soon as possible, yet, nevertheless, he observes the decencies and proceeds in a dignified way. It would hurt business and diminish profits if fines or damages had to be paid as a result of recklessness.

But the chauffeur who has no real cause for hurry, who is merely gratifying his own or his employer's pleasure and inordinate desire for swift motion, menaces the lives of pedestrians with the consciousness that there is money in the treasury to pay for the sport. Which is why thoughtful citizens are applauding Magistrate Cornell who yesterday in the Yorkville police court declared that violators of the speed ordinances should be imprisoned instead of fined, and that it is the owners, and not the chauffeurs who ought to be punished.

Another Magistrate Has an Idea.

But the automobile is too useful a machine to be condemned utterly, because there are idle and vicious persons who do not know how to use it properly. Another New York police magistrate, Mr. Pool, has suggested a new use for it. He wants the city to buy automobiles for the use of drunks. Magistrate Pool thinks it a mistake to take every drunken man to the station house. It would be much better, he thinks, to take them home, and he suggests that they be taken home in the city automobile. Patients, of course, would be expected to pay for the ride, and the automobile would thus become self-supporting.

Magistrate Pool has not yet got his system completely mapped out. For instance, it has not been determined how the money is to be collected. The drunk in the station house knows he must put up his money before he can get out. The drunk in his home may not be inclined to give up his money. Or is the city automobile especially designed for the use of wealthy clubmen. The Hell Gate sign, by the way, might not be wholly inappropriate for this kind of automobiles.

The Death Roll

Details of the Rev. Dr. Lorimer's Death.

Word was received yesterday at the country residence of George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia, of the death at Aix-les-Baines of his father, the Rev. Dr. George C. Lorimer, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist church, New York. Dr. Lorimer had been ailing during the past year with intestinal trouble and rheumatism. On August 26 he complained to his physician of excruciating pain in the region of the heart, and a well-known Parisian doctor was called in consultation. It is the belief that owing to irritation following the operation, blood clots found lodgement in the lungs causing pneumonia. On August 29 Dr. Lorimer's physician cabled the son of his father's serious condition. Mr. Lorimer sailed on the Deutschland September 1 and arrived at Aix yesterday. Dr. Lorimer's widow is ill and could not go to her husband. She is at her son's country place. Dr. Lorimer leaves three married daughters, Mrs. Gilbert E. Porter and Mrs. Herbert Dunlevy of Chicago, and Mrs. Edward Russell of Denver.

MAY RENOUNCE HIS CITIZENSHIP

James J. VanAlen Will Leave Newport to Become a Resident of England.

NOTORIETY IS THE CAUSE

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]
NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 9.—It was learned today that James J. VanAlen, owner of "Wake Hurst" and one of the most princely entertainers of Newport, one of its pioneer summer residents, who has taken a deep interest in its affairs and especially in its sanitary matters, has rented "Rushton Hall" in Nottingham, England, one of the handsomest estates there, for two years, with an option on the place for its purchase.

Mr. VanAlen, it is reported, will join his friend, William Waldorf Astor, and become a British subject. A considerable portion of each fall and winter Mr. VanAlen has spent in Europe, having presented the British government with an ambulance outfit for the British army, which operated in South Africa during the Boer war, that cost the donor $100,000.

For some time it has been known Mr. VanAlen has been annoyed over the publicity with which his name has been associated and last season it was reported on the best authority that he intended to leave Newport and sell "Wake Hurst," one of the handsomest places here.

Mr. VanAlen is now in New York with his daughter, Miss May VanAlen, for the purpose of purchasing a large house for her in the fashionable uptown center, among her relatives, which include her grandmother, Mrs. Astor, as Miss VanAlen would rather remain in this country than reside in Europe.

For the past three or four years there has been a great deal of notoriety attached to the VanAlen family, beginning with Mr. VanAlen's pending appointment as minister to Italy and his withdrawing from the race, then the romantic ending of R. R. Remington of Pittsburgh, who killed himself at the Newport reading room, because of his broken engagement with Miss May VanAlen, and then the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Sarah VanAlen to Robert Collier, to which Mr. VanAlen was strongly opposed and is to this day at odds with his daughter because she married against his will. These and other matters have caused Mr. VanAlen to remove to the other side.

It was Mr. VanAlen who introduced the monocle habit in Newport.

WRONG NEGRO BURNED AT THE STAKE BY MOB

Colored Man Confesses a Crime for Which One of His Race Suffered in Mississippi.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]
MERIDAN, MISS., Sept. 9.—The wrong negro was burned at the stake at Emporia in June for assaulting a woman. The mob made a fearful mistake in its excitement. There is a negro in the Jackson jail who says that his name is Starling Dunham, that he was wanted in Webster county for assault.

The negro was arrested last night for vagrancy and he then gave his name as Smith. His actions aroused the suspicions of the officers and they were struck with the similiarity between the negro and the descriptions of the negro wanted in Webster county, which they sent out in June.

This afternoon they carefully examined the negro and he tallied exactly with the description of Starling Dunham. Then the negro became excited and said his real name was Dunham; that he had escaped in May from the Attalla county jail as the real Dunham had done, and was wanted in Webster county for assault, and did not want to go back unless he had the protection of a company of soldiers. The matter was laid before Gov. Vardaman this afternoon and he will be given protection if carried back.

ROLLERS AND HEATERS MAY RETURN TO HOOP MILLS

Such a Report Persistently Circulated at Youngstown—Using Influence to Secure Conference.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 9.—A persistent report was circulated today that a break is contemplated among the rollers and heaters employed in the American Steel Hoop Company's plants.

It was said the men for whom the strike was declared will return to work as soon as the lower plant is thrown open, if they can secure their places again. They have gone so far as to exert their influence towards securing a conference with the company independent of the Amalgamated association. They met Thursday night and again Friday morning, it is said. Denials were positive at the Amalgamated association headquarters here, but the statement was made by some of the men who are said to have been back of the movement. There is little question but that the report is authentic.

TOO CRIPPLED TO FIGHT.

Japanese Losses at Liao-Yang Will Prevent General Engagement With Russians, Says German Staff Officer.

BERLIN, Sept. 9.—(Special Cable.)—A member of the general staff of the German army said today that in military circles it was the general opinion the immense sacrifices which the Japanese had made in the five days' battle at Liao-Yang, were not justified by the gain which they had made, and must sooner or later become fatal to them. Even if the commanders of the Japanese army were able to get fresh men it would not counterbalance the loss of the thousands of men who might have been put to better use in pursuing the retreating Russian army.

"It is evident," the officer said, "that after these immense losses first at Liao-Yang and then at Muhden that Marshal Oyama will not be able to fight any battle of importance with Gen. Kuropatkin."

GIRL FELL FAST ASLEEP WHILE DRESSING FOR PARTY

While dressing for a reception Thursday evening at her home, Miss Zella Fulton of Ninth avenue, McKeesport, was overcome by drowsiness and dropped into a sleep that defied the efforts of her family and physicians until last night, when she awoke and asked what had happened to her. Miss Fulton is about 25 years of age, and had never been subject to attacks such as that experienced yesterday. Her physician, Dr. J. L. Penney, attributes the sleep to excitement.

Called Each Day for Seven Years.

When Peter Jansen, a Swede of Bloomfield, was called for a hearing before Magistrate Kane yesterday morning on a charge of threatening C. J. Hoffman of 4718 Liberty avenue, a peculiar story was told. Jansen seven years ago entered suit before Alderman John Given to recover some money. He lost the suit, and it is alleged that every day since he has called at the alderman's office and shouted that he has not yet received the money. Jansen was fined $3 and costs.

RANG FIRE BELLS FOR BEER WAGON

Indiana Citizens Turned Out at Midnight to Shut Off Supply of Speakeasies.

DRIVER ESCAPED THE WRATH

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]
INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 9.—The ringing of fire bells last midnight awakened the people of Paoli, Orange county, and when they reached the streets, many of them in their night clothes, and inquired into the cause of the alarm, they were informed that a wagon load of beer had been brought into the town.

Paoli is what is known as a dry town, but for several weeks it has been thought that intoxicants were being smuggled into the place and were being sold in speakeasies.

A close watch was kept upon the suspects, but no evidence could be secured. Last midnight the town marshal was notified that a wagon load of beer had left a nearby railroad station, and it was thought it was intended for delivery at Paoli. He rang the fire bells, and when the people reached the street and were informed of the facts, they determined to give the driver of the wagon a warm reception.

While they were still consulting, the wagon entered the town, but the driver had become suspicious, and when a crowd approached him he whipped his horses into a run and left the town with 40 or 50 persons in pursuit. Several shots were fired at the fleeing wagon, but it was not overtaken.

FAMOUS REDWOOD TREES THREATENED BY FIRE

Forests in California Are Ablaze in Many Parts of the State—Loss Is Heavy.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Forest fires are doing great damage in California. In Alemada and Contra Costa counties thousands of acres of land have been swept by flames and many houses have been destroyed, the loss reaching $100,000. In Marin county fires have burned over the slopes of Mt. Tamalpias and now threaten the scenic railway and timber in the adjacent canyons.

The Big Basin state park in Santa Cruz and Santa Clara counties, which contains some of the largest and finest redwood trees in the state, seem doomed, though hundreds of men are fighting the fire.

In Monterey and San Luis Obispi counties thousands of acres of pasture have been burned and the stock driven from the ranges. None of the fires are yet under control.

ARBITRATION'S DISCIPLES GATHER FOR CONGRESS

Inter-Parliamentary Union's Sessions at St. Louis Will Mark Era in History.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9.—The inter-parliamentary union, composed of 226 delegates from America, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, England, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Roumania, Sweden and Switzerland, arrived here on two special trains today, and next week will hold its twelfth annual session.

The organization was perfected at Paris in 1888, having grown out of the conference of 30 English and 30 French parliamentarians, who had assembled to discuss the execution of an arbitration treaty between England and France. With the exception of one year, annual sessions have since been held, including the meeting in Paris in 1900, and the peace congress at The Hague. At this session, questions which were discussed at The Hague congress will be taken up, probably for final decision, and the St. Louis session promises to be the most important assemblage ever held.

The conference will discuss such questions of moment as rights and duties of neutrals, immunity of private property at sea, execution of arbitration treaties, reduction of armaments, and the creation of a permanent official congress of nations to supplement The Hague court.

It is learned that some members of the American delegation will introduce a resolution requesting the president of the United States to invite all nations to send delegates to a conference empowered to negotiate arbitration treaties, and to consider what steps the governments can now take in the questions above numerated.

MEN OF NATIONAL PROMINENCE GIVE STRAIGHT-FORWARD EVIDENCE

That Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

COL. NATHANIEL SHATSWELL, First Mass. Heavy Artillery, Army of the Potomac, past commander in the Union Veteran Legion, and a prominent Grand Army man, writes from the Museum, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I commend Peruna as a most agreeable as well as effective medicine. Catarrh and catarrhal colds are checked and generally cured by a judicious use of it. Peruna is a good promoter of digestion and is an excellent remedy for a weak stomach. It tones up the appetite and is not at all disagreeable to take."—Col. Nathaniel Shatswell.

Mrs. W. E. Grissom, Henry Ellis county, Texas, writes:

"I took Peruna faithfully over two months, and the result is a thoroughly renovated system and a strong, buoyant feeling, to say nothing of a cure of the chronic catarrh. Therefore I shall avail myself of every opportunity to speak of Peruna as a catarrh cure."—Mrs. W. E. Grissom.

A great many remedies to temporarily relieve catarrh have been devised from time to time, such as sprays, snuffs, creams and other local applications, but, as a rule, the medical profession has little or no enthusiasm in the treatment of catarrh.

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. Peruna is not a guess nor an experiment—it is an absolute scientific certainty. Peruna has no substitutes—no rivals. Insist upon having Peruna.

Chas. W. Bowman, First Lieutenant and Adjutant, 4th M. S. M., Cav. Vols., writes from Lanham, Md., as follows:

"Though somewhat averse to patent medicines, and still more averse to becoming a professional affidavit man, it seems only a plain duty in the present instance to add my experience to the columns already written concerning the curative powers of Peruna.

"I have been particularly benefited by its use for colds in the head and throat. I have been able to fully cure myself of a most severe attack in forty-eight hours by its use according to directions. I use it as a preventive whenever threatened with an attack.

"Members of my family also use it for like ailments. We are recommending it to our friends."—Chas. W. Bowman.

Peruna operates immediately to strengthen the nerves and give tone to the mucous membranes.

Many households Regard Pe-ru-na as Their Family Medicine.

There is no other internal catarrh remedy that has proven effective in all cases.

Pe-ru-na Cannot Be Imitated.

Some things may be successfully imitated, but Peruna cannot be. Everyone purchasing Peruna should look out for imitations. Examine each package carefully. If you have ever used Peruna or if you have ever tasted it, you are not in the slightest danger of being misled by these imitations, but all those beginning the use of Peruna should beware.

Believe no one who tells you that he has a remedy that is making the same cures that Peruna is making.

Hon. D. L. Russell, ex-Congressman of North Carolina, writes from Wilmington, N. C., as follows:

"I cheerfully join with United States Senator Pritchard and Congressmen Blackburn and Linney in recommending Peruna as an invigorating tonic."—D. L. Russell.

Peruna is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure catarrh, no matter where located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

FOUR ARE KILLED; THIRTY-FIVE HURT

Seaboard Air Line Train Crashes Through Trestle—Freight Follows on Top of It.

CRIMINAL WORK SUSPECTED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PORTSMOUTH, VA., Sept. 9.—Train 41 on the Seaboard Airline railroad, consisting of an express car, a mail car, two day coaches and a Pullman sleeper, was derailed at a trestle just south of the Catawba river, South Carolina, and 22 miles southwest of Monroe, N. C., soon after 10 o'clock this morning, followed by the wreck of a light engine and caboose, resulting in the death of four persons and the injuring of 35 others.

THE KILLED:

ENGINEER E. Y. BARKSDALE, Abbeville, S. C.

FIREMAN ED ROBERTS, colored, Atlanta, Ga.

MRS. BLACK.

UNKNOWN WOMAN.

The dead and injured were brought back to Monroe. J. M. Barr, first vice president and general manager of the road, said there is evidence of a malicious attempt to wreck the train, a number of joints having been found disconnected.

Freight Tumbles on Wreck.

The train was running about 40 miles an hour when the trestle, which is about 300 feet long, spanning a meadow near the Catawba river, gave way. The engine and some of the cars passed over, but were drawn backward into the abyss and upon the other cars. To add to the disaster a light engine and caboose ran on top of the wreckage before it could be flagged.

When the train went crashing over the embankment every light went out, passengers were thrown against the sides of the coaches, bleeding and bruised.

As the scrambling and shouting went on in the dark, above the noises a brakeman with his head half way out a window was heard to shout: "My God, the freight train is coming upon us."

In less than a minute the freight, which had left Monroe 15 minutes behind the passenger train, struck the open space where the bridge had fallen, and plunged its way through the passenger cars. A woman whose identity cannot be discovered, then met her death, the freight engine having crashed through the side of the car in which she was. The engineer of the freight train must have met his death instantly. When his body was dug out of the debris this morning his watch was still running on time. His fireman escaped with a few minor injuries.

Sank Grief in Duty.

Mr. Black, whose wife was killed beside him, was the last man to leave the coaches, and the first thing he did was to walk to his bruised condition to Catawba Junction, two miles away, and send a telegram to Monroe for help. Black is a telegraph operator in the service of the Norfolk & Western railway, and was going to Atlanta with his wife to testify there in a railroad suit.

Railroad men said today that they had never seen such a complete demolition of engines and coaches as made by the wreck. It will take some days to get the line in passable condition, although the trains are scattered to the side of the tracks and in the ravine into which the bridge fell.

George S. Fitswater, chief detective of the Seaboard Airline, said this afternoon that he found some spikes and bolts and two angle bars which had been removed from the track with clawbars, and is confident that criminal work had been done. He expressed his belief that some one had disconnected the joints in the lower half of the bridge.

Evidence of Foul Play.

The stretch of track in that vicinity is a clear, straight and apparently well-built one. The timbers of the bridge appear to have been wrenched from their fastenings and those that are splintered are of sound wood. There was nothing to suggest that the foundation of the structure was undermined by a washout, although the ground was somewhat marshy yesterday.

The unidentified woman who was so badly mutilated wore a simple gold ring with the inscription "From Tom to Anna, October 20, 1885. She was probably 32 years of age, medium-sized, with dark auburn hair. She had a return trip ticket from Wilmington, N. C., to Atlanta.

Gaston Mars, the engineer of the passenger train, escaped with only a few bruises.

SOUTHERN KILLS TWO.

Engine Jumps Track, Turns Over and Crushes the Engineer and Brakeman.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Sept. 9.—Two men were killed and another seriously injured in a wreck on the Southern Railway between Dogwood and Wilton on the Birmingham and Selma division this afternoon. The dead are W. H. Cherry, engineer, and Will Ivey, negro brakeman. N. L. Snow, white fireman, is badly injured.

The train was running 30 miles an hour when the engine jumped the track and struck the cross ties, turning completely over, crushing the engineer and brakeman.

CHARGED WITH ROBBING HIS OWN JEWELRY STORE

Indiana Man Is Also Said to Have Become Engaged to Two Girls at Same Time.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 9.—Charles E. Henderson, a jeweler of Bedford, was arrested today on a charge of robbing his own store. Henderson was a deacon in the church and was supposed to be doing a prosperous business, but he was often away from his family two or three days at a time.

He disappeared on July 6. It developed that he had taken a large amount of jewelry, which had been left with him for repairs and also a consignment of diamonds which had been sent to him from Chicago. He went to Iowa, and there, under the name of E. J. Rodgers, it is alleged, proposed to the daughter of a prominent citizen of Burlington and the wedding day was set.

At Hogiston, Ill., under a different name, he also engaged himself to be married, it is claimed, and at each place he gave an engagement ring, and through the influence of the parents of the young ladies succeeded in disposing of other rings and jewelry. He fell under suspicion at Burlington and the engagement was broken. His presents were returned to him by express to Evansville, under the name of Rodgers, and when he called for the package he was recognized as Henderson and placed under arrest.

TREATY SIGNED BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND TIBET

Dalai Lama Goes Into Mongolia and Is Supposed to Have Abdicated.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

LHASSA, Sept. 7, Via Gyangtse, Sept. 9.—Col. Younghusband, head of the British mission and the Tibetan officials signed a formal treaty today in the apartments of the dalai lama at Potala. The ceremony was simple and was conducted amid quaint and picturesque surroundings. The terms of the treaty were read out only in the Tibetan language and its details will be published later by the foreign office at Simla. The proceedings closed with a short speech by Col. Younghusband.

The dalai lama is now supposed to be well on his way into Mongolia, and the officials insist that his action amounts to abdication. The administration is now carried on by a council of regency. It is believed that the tashi lama will eventually be recognized as the supreme religious head. The arrangements for the return for the British mission are complete.

CLOCK CAUSES STRIKE.

Dockmen Refuse to Lose Their Own Time in Order to Register Arrival and Departure.

A new clock caused a strike yesterday at the plant of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal & Coke Company at McKeesport, and the big barge yard and sawmill were shut down. About 200 men will be thrown out of work, although the strike originated among 25 dockhands, whom the introduction of the clock affects particularly.

The men say they will not work until the clock is removed. According to the strikers, the clock was installed in the office to keep tab on the workmen. Employes were ordered to register in the morning, at noon and at night, and none of the company's time was to be taken for registering. As some of the men, particularly the dockhands, are employed at a distance from where the clock is, the new order meant a matter of about half an hour. The men laid down their tools and went to the office of Superintendent Zenn, but were unable to gain admittance. They then went home. All the other employes say they will come out in sympathy with the dockmen.

VISITED THE LIGHT PLANT.

Councilmen from Milwaukee Took a Trip to the Allegheny Center of Lighting.

City Engineer Charles J. Poetsch and Alderman Frank Steigbeaur, Peter Barry and Henry Smith of Milwaukee were in Allegheny yesterday making an inspection of the municipal light plant. They constitute a committee appointed to visit cities for the purpose of studying the methods used where municipal light plants have been installed. It is the intention of Milwaukee councils to erect such a plant and the committees' duty is to obtain data that can be used in making estimates.

During the day the visitors were shown through the North Side light plant by Superintendent Alex Gray and Superintendent E. G. Loomis of the bureau of electricity, explained the workings of the fire alarm and police signal system. The committee leaves today for Toronto, Can.

Buried Under Lumber Pile.

John W. Morgan, a well-known contractor of McKeesport, was buried under a large pile of lumber yesterday at Dead Man's hollow, on the Youghiogheny river, and seriously injured. It required the efforts of five men to extricate him.

WIFE BETRAYS ALLEGED THIEF

"You Know You're a Burglar," She Said in Presence of Policemen.

SENT TO JAIL PENDING TRIAL

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 9.

"You know you're a burglar. Give yourself up," exclaimed Mrs. William Bullock, to her husband as he was lying snugly in bed at his home, 428 South Fifth street, with two policemen standing at his side. The policemen were panting for breath after an exciting chase over housetops, Bullock having outdistanced them and taken refuge in his bed where he calmly claimed that he had not been out of the house all night, until his wife betrayed him. Bullock's ruse would have been successful had it not been for his wife. As it was, after a hearing before Magistrate Harrison this morning he was committed to jail to await trial on the charge of burglary.

A pedestrian notified Policemen Edem and Hart early this morning that a man was prowling over the roofs of houses on the west side of Fifth street below Pine street. He said that the man would disappear in windows and reappear with bundles, which he placed in a big bag. The policemen hurried to the vicinity and forced an entrance into one of the houses. They climbed to the roof through a trap door and went for the man, who died across the housetops. Running nimbly the burglar gained on the plucecoals and jumped to a roof one story lower, and then, doubling on his tracks, climbed the wall to the higher roof from which he let himself down by the eaves to a third-story window, into which he crawled. The officers then entered the building through the trap door and the discovery of Bullock followed.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

CHILD-WIFE TOLD COURT SHE SHOULD BE PUNISHED

Girl Had Taken Her Mother-in-Law Seriously and Attempted to Kill Herself.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Mrs. Ellen Mills, a bride of six months, and only 16 years old, who lives with her husband and mother-in-law at 224 Clinton street, was arraigned before Magistrate Ommen in Essex Market police court today, charged with attempting suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Said Magistrate Ommen:

"If you will promise me that you will not again entertain the idea of suicide I will let you go."

"But I ought to be punished. I want to be punished for buying that acid, judge," said the girl.

"Well, I think you have been punished enough—you have been locked up and thus humiliated and for a pretty girl and a bride of six months I think that is enough. Now listen to me: Live your life; don't mind what your mother-in-law says of you or to you. If I minded all that is said to me I guess I, too, might be tempted to buy carbolic acid, except that a new law makes it impossible to buy it unless on a physician's prescription."

"Then you don't think I ought to be punished?" asked the girl wife.

"Say, Mills, take your wife home and tell your mother to let her alone," said the court. "Better go and take a flat by yourselves."

WILL APPEAL HIS CASE.

Irwin Merchant Fined on a Charge of Selling Goods on Sunday.

IRWIN, PA., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Louis Palvis was this morning fined $4 and costs for selling candy, fruit, etc., on Sunday. The case was prosecuted by the Ministerial association and Civic society. Palvis was fined some time ago on the same charge. He paid and continued to keep open on Sunday. The next time he was arrested the charge was for selling to about a dozen different persons, and each charge was to be pressed. Palvis finally agreed to stop doing business on Sunday if the charges were withdrawn. The prosecutors consented. Palvis kept closed for two Sundays, but according to the evidence given he sold whatever was called for under the name of "lunch" last Sunday. Palvis will appeal his case.

Window Glass Jobbers to Work Together

It is considered probable that the window glass jobbers will be able to form a combination, despite the failure of the manufacturers to accomplish that end. At the St. Louis meeting, which has just ended, the price of glass above the 40-inch bracket was advanced to 90 and 5 off the jobbers' list. Under that bracket the price remains the same.

BOY WAS PUSHED INTO THE RIVER

Coroner Notified That Two People in Ill-Health Shot Themselves.

UNKNOWN MAN WAS KILLED

Frank Ruminski, aged 7, of 814 Cabot way, South Side, who was drowned in the Monongahela river at the foot of South Eighth street, Thursday, is believed to have been pushed into the river by an older companion. Deputy Coroner Frank Rohan made an investigation of the case yesterday, and he learned that a boy living on the South Side deliberately pushed Ruminski into the water.

From the evidence found by Deputy Rohan the boys were sitting on the river bank. Young Ruminski reached over in the water and a companion, who is described as being a boy about 12 years old, shoved him into the water. The deputy learned the boy's name, went to his home and arranged with his parents to have him attend the inquest this morning. It is believed the boy was drowned in a playful prank.

Frank Perrero, aged 50, of 5173 Penn avenue, a fireman on the West Penn railroad, was killed at the McFadden street roundhouse by a passenger train. He got off his engine and stepped in front of the other train.

The coroner was notified yesterday of two persons ending their lives by shooting themselves because of ill health. John Boreland, a miner of Plum township, shot himself in the head Thursday and died yesterday and Mrs. Fanny Matthews shot herself in the breast Tuesday at Bellwood, near Homesicad. Both had been despondent for some time.

Mrs. Martha Hill, aged 70, of Homestead, died at her home yesterday from heart failure. The woman was sitting in a chair and fell dead on the floor.

An unknown white man was struck and killed by a freight train at Brown station, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, at 9:30 o'clock last night. He was walking the track with another man, who was so intoxicated he could not tell his own or companion's name. A receipt made out to Edward Pustry for $25 and signed by M. Glampell and an Eagle fraternity badge were found on the dead man. He was about 60 years old and weighed 200 pounds. The body was sent to Homestead.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT; COULDN'T BAKE BREAD

CUMBERLAND, MD., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Simon Weicht of Bedford county, Pa., and Mrs. Flora Ellis, who came here to marry Weicht, have settled their breach of promise suit for $150, which, with car fare paid by Weicht, makes the cost to him $200. Weicht refused to marry Mrs. Ellis because he learned she could not make bread. Mrs. Ellis has returned south.

SUED BOARDING MISTRESS BECAUSE OF MEAT SUPPLY

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Because he did not get his regular allowance of meat at his boarding house, Frank Kizel caused the arrest of his boarding mistress, Mrs. Glazer. Kizel alleged that he formerly received half a pound of meat, but this had been cut down. Alderman Williams, who heard the case, dismissed it and told Kizel he ought not to eat half a pound of meat at a meal anyhow.

Sheriff Prevents Jail Breaking.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—While County Jailer Davis and his wife took turns in watching them, 10 prisoners confined on the second corridor labored all day trying to gain freedom by sawing off the bars of a cell door. As the last bar was cut nearly through by an improvised tool in the hands of the inmates, Sheriff Jolliff appeared on the scene and locked all the participants in a cage, where they will be confined on bread and water.

Train Strikes Tree; Not Wrecked.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—The southbound Pennsylvania express on the W. N. Y. & P. division of the Pennsylvania lines, from Oil City to New Castle, was nearly wrecked last night near Volant by crashing into a tree that had been blown down by a heavy storm. The locomotive remained on the rails and carried the tree over 200 feet, when the trunk broke in two and fell at either side of the tracks.

Miners' Strike Settled.

ZANESVILLE, O., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—After a strike which has lasted since April 1, affecting 2,000 coal miners in the Coshocton and Crooksville district and entailing a total loss estimated at over $2,000,000, the miners' and operators' representatives signed a scale this afternoon, and work will be resumed at once. The scale is a compromise and means a reduction of 10 per cent in the miners' wages.

Judge Laubis Renominated.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Judge Peter A. Laubis had little trouble in being renominated by the Republican convention from this district for circuit judge for a fifth term. "Played Out"

Is one of the curious expressions used for worked out. Many a woman drops into a chair, in utter weariness "all played out," and wonders why she feels so weak. She has not yet realized that the general health is so intimately related to the local health of the womanly organism, that weakness must follow womanly diseases.

Restoration of the general health invariably follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

There is no substitute for "Favorite Prescription," for there is nothing "just as good" for womanly ills.

"I wish to advise the suffering women of this great land, of the good I have received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Mary Shappell, of Columbus Grove, Putnam Co., Ohio. "For four years I had been a sufferer from female troubles, and at times was unable to do even the housework for three in the family. I had such pains that I suffered almost death dozens of times, but after taking five bottles of your medicines I can truthfully say that my health was greatly improved. I have a good appetite and am gaining in flesh right along. This spring is the first time in five years that I have done my house cleaning all by myself and without the least fatigue whatever. I hope all suffering women may find relief as I have done.

"My gain in weight has been just ten pounds, and I am still gaining."

REACHED NO AGREEMENT ON GLASS WAGE SCALE

Conference Is Adjourned to Buffalo. Outcome May Be Disintegration of Unity and Open Shops.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 9.—The wage conference between the glass manufacturers and representatives of the Glass Workers' association was adjourned this evening without an agreement having been reached. The conferees will come together again at Buffalo next Thursday.

The attempt of the manufacturers to establish a selling agency was unanimously voted down today, and that matter is abandoned for at least a year.

In the opinion of a well-informed attendant at the conference, the further adjournment of the wage conference to Buffalo is regarded as a sign of weakness, and if an agreement is not reached at next Thursday's conference the outcome may be a disintegration of all unity, and a general open market and open shops.

Eleven minutes later life was pronounced extinct and the body was cut down and prepared for burial in the prison cemetery.

Williams never lost his nerve and went to the scaffold without a whimper, declaring to the last his innocence.

FEAR JAPANESE MINES IN GERMAN WATERS

Kaiser Orders Squadron to Patrol Course Over Which the Baltic Squadron Must Pass.

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]

BERLIN, Sept. 9.—A dispatch from Danzig says the commanding officer of the German squadron at present stationed at that city, has received a special order from the kaiser to patrol the German waters near the island of Roegen, as it is feared Japanese secret agents are trying to lay mines in the route to be taken by the Russian Baltic squadron, which is expected to leave Cronstadt in a few days.

It is known in this city that Japanese agents have been exceedingly busy here of late, and that two of them left the other night on a train bound for Stettin. The German police have strict orders to watch the doings of all persons suspected of being in the pay of Japan.

The commander of the German squadron has not only received orders to examine closely the route generally taken by vessels from St. Petersburg, but also to stop and examine the papers of all suspicious vessels.

FELL OVER AN ALLIGATOR.

Girl Stumbled Upon the Creature While Sweeping and Will Make a Pet of It.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Susie Abrams, 18 years old, of 238 Harrison street, Brooklyn, stumbled across a live alligator today while sweeping off her steps, and with a shriek promptly fainted. The alligator took fright also and backed against the railing. Mrs. Abrams threw water over the girl and thus revived her.

When Susie recovered she took a fancy to the creature. It is now in the back yard, and the girl is studying books on the bringing up of alligators. Where the alligator came from is not known. It is 18 inches long.

FIRST INNING IS AGAINST LARKIN

Court Seems to Be Opposed to Controller in Mandamus Case.

HEARING IS CONTINUED TODAY

The hearing in the mandamus case to compel Controller Larkin to issue warrants to pay the salaries of the employes of the filtration bureau did not result very favorably for the controller yesterday. The hearing began in the afternoon and court adjourned at 5 o'clock to resume this morning at 10:30. Judges Collier, Frazer and Rodgers were on the bench, and remarks made by Judge Frazer indicated to both sides that the court was not in sympathy with the controller's cause.

George W. Guthrie, attorney for Larkin, is hopeful that there will be a change in the attitude of the court today when the arguments are finished. It is expected that a decision will be handed down today on the demurrer to Controller Larkin's answer.

City Solicitor Rodgers, who made the argument for Chief Engineer Morris Knowles, asserted the controller had had ample time to examine the payroll, and the real contention of the controller was that no appropriation had been made by councils for the payment of the salaries of the employes of the filtration bureau.

This contention was unfounded, he argued, for the reason that the people had voted for a $2,500,000 loan to the city, on bonds, for the purposes of filtration. The payroll had been regular and had left no room for charges of fraud, which the controller does not even intimate.

Mr. Guthrie replied to Rodgers. He contended that the controller, under the act of 1901, had no authority to pay out money unless provided by specific appropriation, alleging that no specific appropriation had been made in this instance.

Mr. Guthrie made an attack on the ordinance creating the bureau of filtration, which was enacted by councils last year. He said the ordinance was plainly illegal, because it also appropriated money for the payment of the salaries of the employes. He contended that any ordinance containing more than one subject is illegal.

Judge Frazer suggested that the act of the people in voting the money might be construed to be the necessary appropriation, but Mr. Guthrie said the people did not actually vote the money for filtration, but simply authorized the proper officers of the city to borrow $2,500,000 for the purposes of filtration. He said it was never intended that the money should be expended simply for the payment of the expenses of a bureau created after the money was borrowed.

The money, he claimed, was to be used solely for the purposes of filtration, and under the construction of the law could not be used for the payment of these salaries without, at least, an ordinance appropriating the money.

After the adjournment of court the controller said: "The court seemed rather disposed to be against us today, but Mr. Guthrie thinks the judges will take a different view of the matter tomorrow. There is no doubt in my mind and in the mind of my attorney that I have no right to issue warrants for the payment of money, particularly for salaries, when there has been no appropriation for the same. If salaries could be paid without an appropriation, then no specific appropriations would be required for any purpose. Under such a policy all that would be necessary would be to raise $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 each year by tax levy and allow the department officers to take out of this lump sum as much money as they wanted. That is not the law, and I do not believe the court will so hold."

Controller Larkin received yesterday a certified copy of the resolution adopted on Tuesday by the finance committee, directing to him to "at once" advertise for bids on $5,000,000 bonds for filtration. The controller says that he will now consider the resolution and make known to the finance committee, probably today, whether he will obey its instructions.

RENEWED ACTIVITY IN PITTSBURGH CHURCHES

Return of Vacation Travelers Marks Revival of Interest in Religious Work. Rededication of a Church.

Tomorrow will mark renewed activity in all the local churches. The pastors of nearly all congregations have returned from their summer vacation journeys and the pews once again are reoccupied. Many congregations have taken advantage of the summer closing period to remodel their buildings and to make improvements in their furnishment.

The First Congregational church, Franklin and Manhattan streets, Allegheny, will be rededicated with special services on Sunday evening, September 25. The interior of the building has been completely overhauled and has been transformed into a most inviting place for worship. Tomorrow afternoon the chapel for the use of the Mary S. Brown Methodist Episcopal church, Saline avenue and Federal Hill street, will be dedicated. The building occupies the site of the old Brown chapel and will shelter the congregation while the large memorial is being built by Capt. S. S. Brown, near Beechwood boulevard. The Ames Methodist Episcopal church in Hazelwood will dedicate its new $5,000 pipe organ.

Ten thousand people are expected to attend the dedication of the new Italian Roman Catholic church of the Madonna of Jerusalem in Sharpsburg tomorrow. The services will be in charge of Coadjutor Bishop J. F. Regis Canevin. The exercises will be preceded by a procession of the local Italian societies.

The Lawrenceville branch of the Young Men's Christian association will hold religious services in the association tent, at Forty-seventh and Butler streets, tomorrow afternoon. The Rev. Dr. T. J. Leak will make the address.

BLUE LAWS AGAIN.

Ministers Will Discuss Sunday Crusade at Big Joint Meeting Monday Afternoon.

The question of the sponsorship of the Allegheny County Sabbath Observance association's blue law crusade will be discussed at a joint meeting of the ministerial associations on Monday afternoon. The meeting has been ostensibly called for the purpose of hearing the report of the association's work, it being considered more expedient to have all the ministers together. The principle question for discussion, however, will be the status of the ministerial associations regarding the conduct of the crusade.

It is thought that the associations will indorse the movement, but there will be a number of dissenting voices and a lively meeting is looked for. The Observance association has declared that it will have its detectives at work tomorrow, but no prosecutions will be entered until after the meeting of the ministers. A number of ministers will counsel moderation, but their conservative position is more than offset by laymen who have contributed liberally toward the prosecution of certain Sunday dealers.

The druggists say they are not alarmed and will keep their places of business open tomorrow as usual. Renewed agitation, they declare, will result in the speedy repeal of the blue laws at the next session of the Pennsylvania legislature.

Albanians Will Protest.

ROME, Sept. 9.—Ricciotti Garibaldi, son of the Italian patriot, in a letter to the Tribuna, says that there will soon be presented to the powers a protest by 70,000 Albanians living in Italy, against the alleged action of Gen. Ilo Giorgas, commander-in-chief of the international gendarmerie in Macedonia, in favoring Austria against the interests of the Albanians.

FRICK DEFEATED BY COUNCILMEN

Survey Committee Votes Down Ordinance for Vacation of Fillmore Street.

BAUM'S ATTACK IS REBUKED

Nearly all the work done by the survey committee of councils on Tuesday was undone yesterday. George W. Baum's attack upon Councilman Hammer of the Twentieth ward for proposing to change the name of a portion of Rebecca street to Sherwood avenue caused such a revulsion of feeling against Baum that the committee yesterday reversed its action and recommended that the name be changed for the entire street, from Center avenue to Stanton avenue, instead of from Penn to Liberty avenue, as first proposed. A number of members of the committee who voted against the ordinance Tuesday stated that they voted for the ordinance yesterday only because of the abuse heaped upon Maj. Hammer. Rebecca street is in the Nineteenth and Twentieth wards, and is one of the best residence streets in the East End. The measure was approved by a vote of 13 to 9.

The committee also reconsidered its action of Tuesday on the proposed vacations of Fillmore avenue in the Fourteenth ward and of McPherson street in the Twenty-first and Thirty-seventh wards. W. H. Johns of the Fourteenth ward asked for a reconsideration of the vote on Fillmore street, which it is proposed to vacate between Dithridge street and Bellefield avenue. He said the proposed vacation was in the interest of H. C. Frick and that it would give him the entire frontage on both sides of Bellefield avenue between Forbes street and Fifth avenue, Mr. Frick having recently purchased the two corners fronting Bellefield avenue and Fillmore street. Johns had a remonstrance, signed by the other property owners in Fillmore street, against the vacation, which he did not find it necessary to present. By a unanimous vote this ordinance was returned to councils with a negative recommendation.

By a unanimous vote the ordinance providing for the vacation of McPherson street, between Richland street and Braddock avenue, was reconsidered and returned to councils with a negative recommendation. Councilmen have discovered that this vacation is intended for the benefit of a brewing company and an individual who own the corner properties at the end of the street. The vacation, Councilman Gulland said, would cut off all communication from the Twenty-first ward to the Brushton district except by way of Penn and Frankstown avenues.

The hold-up of the ordinances for street vacations in the Twenty-first ward for the Brilliant cut-off of the Pennsylvania railroad was broken by Councilman West making a motion to withdraw the bills from the special subcommittee to which they were referred over a month ago. The railroad officials had done some energetic missionary work since the Tuesday meeting, and the administration also worked for the approval of the ordinances. By a unanimous vote the committee sent the bills to councils with an affirmative recommendation.

Similar action was taken on the ordinance vacating South Thirty-second street, which is wanted by Jones & Laughlin and the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad, the ordinance being recalled from the sub-committee, to which it was referred on Tuesday. The other street vacation bills for the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad were permitted to lie in sub-committee, as was the ordinance for the vacation of Gas alley, between First and Second avenues, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company and Jones & Laughlin succeeding in holding this bill in a sub-committee against the endeavors of Rea & Co. to take it out and pass it.

Girl Defended Her Sister.

Anti-Cruelty Agent P. L. Kunz charges Ferdinand Rohdie of South Twenty-second street with cruelty to his daughter Rosie, aged 15. Rohdie recently had his daughter Annie, aged 18, arrested for incorrigibility, but it was alleged yesterday the girl's arrest was made because she tried to defend her younger sister.

THE EDITOR'S BRAIN

Did Not Work Well Under Coffee.

A brain worker's health is often injured by coffee, badly selected food and sedentary habits. The experience of the Managing Editor of one of the most prosperous newspapers in the Middle West with Postum Food Coffee illustrates the necessity of proper feeding for the man who depends on his brain for a living.

"Up to three years ago," writes this gentleman, "I was a heavy coffee drinker. I knew it was injuring me. It directly affected my stomach and I was threatened with chronic dyspepsia. It was then that my wife persuaded me to try Postum Food Coffee. The good results were so marked that I cannot say too much for it. When first prepared I did not fancy it, but inquiry developed the fact that cook had not boiled it long enough, so next time I had it properly made and was charmed with it. Since that time coffee has had no place on my table save for guests. Both myself and wife are fond of this new cup which 'cheers but does not inebriate' in a much truer and fitter sense than coffee. My stomach has resumed its normal functions and I am now well and strong again, mentally and physically.

"I am confident that coffee is a poison to many stomachs, and I have recommended Postum with great success to a number of my friends who were suffering from the use of coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

NEW STEEL RAIL ORDERS AMOUNT TO 14,000 TONS

Came from Western Roads and Should Have Gone to Colorado Company.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The new rail orders secured by the United States Steel Corporation came from two roads in the southwest and from one in the west. The order secured from the latter is said to be one that should have gone under ordinary circumstances to the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, but the latter was not able to promise delivery as early as the specifications called for.

The total new orders, according to the Wall Street Journal, are estimated at 14,000 tons, all of which will be rolled at the mills of the Illinois Steel Company. It is understood the new orders were all taken on the guarantee that the price would be maintained at $28 or rebates would be granted. This fact is said to indicate the corporation does not anticipate an early revision of the present rail pool schedule.

WILL NOT BELIEVE HER HUSBAND DEAD

Grief-Crazed Woman Is Barricaded at Her Home, Refusing to Take Food.

TRAGIC SCENE AT FUNERAL

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The funeral of Charles Calder, who was run over and killed Tuesday by a Brooklyn trolley car, today passed his home in Williamsburg, where his grief-crazed wife has barricaded herself, refusing to believe that he is dead and refusing to take food.

The cortege stopped in front of the house, surrounded by a huge crowd which had gathered about the insane woman's fortress day and night. Her stepson left the mourners' carriage. He approached the house, intending to tell Mrs. Calder that the body of her husband was in the hearse outside, thus hoping to convince her of his death. As he rapped at the door Mrs. Calder appeared at the window with a huge butcher knife in her hand.

"Get out of here," she yelled. "That isn't my husband. He isn't dead. The next funeral you bring here I'll do this," and the woman drew the blade of the knife across her throat as though she would kill herself. While she says she is not insane and that she is not hungry, Mrs. Calder insists that her husband is still alive, but that her enemies have stolen him from her.

ALCORN NAMES COMMITTEEMEN

Executive Body of Democratic Organization Will Hold Session on Monday Afternoon.

COUNTY CONVENTION TO MEET

The Democratic county executive committee has been called to meet on Monday at 2 p. m., County Chairman Thomas B. Alcorn having yesterday sent out notices to that effect, signed by himself and E. J. H. Carnegie, Jr., the secretary of the committee. The meeting will be held at Democratic headquarters.

The committee will map plans for the coming political campaign and will select the campaign committee. It will also issue a call for a meeting of the Democratic county convention, which met early in the summer, but made no nominations for county officers. The Democrats will put up a full county, legislative and congressional ticket, Alcorn says, so that the calling together of the committees appointed by the legislative conventions to fill vacancies will also soon be in order. As the chairmen of those conventions are members of the county executive committee, that matter will be discussed on Monday.

The conventions of none of the eight legislative districts in the county named candidates, for political conditions were still in confusion, so far as a possible fusion movement was concerned, but now that it is decided that the Democrats will have to go it alone, without assistance from the Citizens party, the unterrified may put up candidates. There is no hope for Democratic success except, perhaps, in the Fourth district, but as the fight between the First and Fourth wards for the nomination is bitter, it is a foregone conclusion that in the Fourth district, too, the Republican candidate will win.

The following are the county executive committeemen: First legislative district, Robert Beck; Second, John W. McKay; Third, D. J. Boyle; Fourth, Stephen J. Toole; Fifth, William J. Brennen; Sixth, Charles A. Payne; Seventh, Cornelius Casey, and Eighth, Morris Thompson; also Col. James M. Guffey, E. J. Frauenheim, James A. Clark, W. J. McDevitt of Braddock, John F. O'Toole, D. C. Casey of Carnegie and the city chairman of McKeesport.

The first eight are the chairmen of the legislative conventions and by the party rules are members of the executive committee. The others were appointed by Chairman Alcorn, and with few exceptions they are the same as last year.

A big delegation from Allegheny county Republican clubs will attend the state convention to be held in Reading on September 21 and 22. Already 30 clubs have signified their intention of sending delegates, and it is expected that many other organizations will make a similar announcement.

SPECIAL FAVOR TO CHAPELLE.

Archbishop Received by the Papal Secretary of State—Audience Rare at This Time.

ROME, Sept. 9.—Papal Secretary of State Cardinal Merry del Val granted an audience to Archbishop Chapelle, the apostolic delegate to Cuba and Porto Rico and archbishop of New Orleans, today, which is a special distinction, audiences being very rare now.

The archbishop explained the object of his visit was to present his homage to the new pope and to submit the report of his delegation to Cuba and Porto Rico and of the archdiocese of New Orleans. The secretary was most cordial, and expressed a wish to see more of Archbishop Chapelle during his stay in Rome.

BILLET POOL MAY MEET HERE TODAY

Manufacturers to Determine New Official Prices at Session in Pittsburgh or New York.

EXPECTED NEW PRICE IS $19

Either today in Pittsburgh or Tuesday in New York the manufacturers of billets and bars from all sections of the country interested will hold a meeting to determine the new official prices. It is desired also to reorganize the billet pool on the new basis since the troubles of the past two months have caused the disruption of all its agreements so far as actual business is concerned.

That the result of the conferences will be prices on a lower basis admits of little doubt, although there have been previous meetings where all seemed certain up to the time of the conference and then the expectations were disappointed.

The basis on which it is generally supposed the agreement will be made is that of $19 for billets, both Bessemer and open hearth; $21 for sheet bars; $1 25 per 100 pounds for iron and steel bars and 10 cents extra for open-hearth steel bars.

These prices are in line with the reductions that have been made in wire, structural shapes and plates. They are believed to represent the condition of the market truly and to be such that confidence will return to the buyers—that the established prices are the real thing. The proposed action ends the long series of conferences and of secret cuts that have been in progress for some time past. The outcome of the troubled situation was the effective blocking of the improvement that was being made in the iron and steel market.

There is every reason to believe that with the new prices fixed in all lines there will be a return of good business. This should be shown at once. It is possible that buyers may hold off to see the new prices tested, but there is little hope on their part that after the costly experiences of the past two months the steel manufacturers will care to initiate another era of price cutting.

The only prices which have not been reduced recently in the iron and steel market are the prices for rails. The general sentiment on this is that the action is justified. The railroads of the country alone of all the industries have refused to recognize the lower scale on which all business is being conducted. Freight rates higher than for many years past are still being collected from an industry that has been a losing proposition for months past. The injustice of this has caused considerable bitterness among iron and steel manufacturers and the railroad that will be the first to break away from the agreement will profit by the good will it will earn from many large shippers.

A WOMAN'S PRAYER.

It is notable that in the despondency caused by womanly diseases, there seems to many a suffering woman no way of escape from pain except at the price of life itself. It would be said to record such a story of struggle and suffering except for the fact that in such dire distress many a woman has found a way back to health and happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This great remedy for womanly ills has well been called "A godsend to weak and sick women." It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Your medicine almost raised me from the dead," writes Mrs. Edwin H. Gardner, of Egypt, Plymouth Co., Mass., Box 14. "My urine was like brick dust, and I had pain all over me and such a dragging feeling it seemed I could not do my house work. I had to sit down to wash the dishes, even. In the year 1897 I was so sick I did not care to live and prayed many times that God would take me. One day I found a little book. I read it and wrote to Dr. Pierce, and in a few days received an answer. I decided to try his medicine, and to-day I am a well woman. I have no backache, no headache, no pain at all. I used always to have headaches previously to the monthly period and such pain that I would roll on the floor in agony. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and three of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and was completely cured."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing just as good.

OTHER CHURCH GATHERINGS

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

WAYNESBURG, PA., Sept. 9.—The session of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Protestant church was occupied today with reports and resolutions. Dr. David Jones of East Liverpool was to have lectured, but was unable to attend. The report of the treasurer of the board of church extension was read and recommitted.

The board of church extension was elected as follows: Dr. George C. Sheppard of Washington, Pa., Dr. A. Fletcher of New Brighton, the Rev. J. C. Broomfield of Pittsburgh, T. B. Evans of Knoxville and Robert Rawsthorne, Jr., of Pittsburgh. The committee on boundaries reported these changes: Trumbull and Turnersville are united into a circuit. East End church of Uniontown, Pa., is made a station, to be called the Second church of Uniontown; Rogersville is added to the Fairview circuit, hereafter to be known as Rogersville circuit; Fair Haven, Allegheny county, is made a station and Idlewood is placed in the hands of the church extension committee with a view to establishing a church at Crafton; Gans, Fayette county, is placed on the roll of appointments and Colls Spring and Morrellville churches become missions.

Church Union Overture Tabled.

The overture for union with the Primitive Methodist church was tabled and the committee reported that as no definite formulations upon union with either the Congregational, United Brethren or Methodist Episcopal churches had been agreed upon by the other denominations, there were no matters upon which to instruct the commissioners appointed yesterday. The Potter tavern was condemned in the report of the temperance committee in these words: "We emphatically condemn the action of Bishop Henry C. Potter in dedicating the Subway saloon in New York city and look upon the singing of the doxology on that occasion as a sacrilege." This evening President S. W. Anthony of Adrian college, Michigan, delivered an address. The ministerial appointments will be announced Monday.

TITUSVILLE, PA., Sept. 9.—The work of the third day of the Erie annual Methodist Episcopal conference was begun with the admission to full deaconship of the following: H. H. Barrem of Brookport, J. E. Zeligood, Corsica, and W. Collier, West Monterey. Bishop Charles W. Fowler presided at this session. In the afternoon Miss L. Willmet, superintendent of the Cleveland Deaconess' home, addressed the Women's Home Missionary society. The afternoon session was concluded with an address to the laymen by Bishop Fowler on amusements. At the evening session the anniversary of the board of education was celebrated, Dr. A. B. Riker, president of Mt. Union college, delivering the address.

German Reformed Synod.

The second day of the eastern synod of the German Reformed church opened with devotional exercises led by the Rev. Eugene Fuessl of New York. A report from the committee on building was then heard, which showed a balance of $472. The Rev. Dr. S. S. Miller of Philadelphia, secretary of the committee for the relief of superannuated ministers and widows, delivered an address in which he reported the society as having an endowment fund of $65,000. In the afternoon the Rev. W. A. Setlege of Marion, O., talked at length concerning the joint mission house at Franklin and the orphans' home at Fort Wayne, Ind. The Rev. Paul Summerlatte of Ellis island made an encouraging report on harbor mission work.

WIFE CAUSED THE KILLING; POLICE CHIEF ACQUITTED

Mrs. Shay Says She Grabbed Her Husband's Arm, Result Being the Shooting of Her Brother.

GREENSBURG, PA., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Testimony of an unusual nature was given in the case of Chief of Police John J. Shay of Scottdale, charged with the murder of his brother-in-law, John Welsh. According to the story of the defendant's wife, Welsh had a grudge against Shay.

On the day of the murder Welsh went to the Shay home and upon being ejected began to throw stones through the windows. One stone hit Shay's little daughter, and Shay, who had retreated to the rear of the lot, fired twice in the air. Just as he shot in the air a third time, Mrs. Shay grabbed his arm bringing the revolver in range and Welsh was mortally wounded. The defendant corroborated the testimony of his wife, claiming he had no intention of wounding Welsh. The jury found Shay not guilty.

ROAD IS TO BE EXTENDED.

Trolley Line Granted Franchise in North Bellevernon, Insuring Right of Way to Fayette City.

MONESSEN, PA., Sept. 9.—(Special.) The granting of a right-of-way by the borough council of North Bellevernon to the Webster, Monessen, Bellevernon & Fayette City street railway last night, opens the way for that road into Fayette City. All the rights of way from Bellevernon to Fayette City had been granted some months ago and the only barrier to extending the road was the "holdup" in North Bellevernon. Surveyors started work on the new line this morning. It has been decided by the new owners to practically rebuild the road from Monessen. Since J. K. Tener and Charles Thompson of Charleroi, H. Dallas McCabe of Monessen, and Percy E. Dounner of Pittsburgh gained a controlling interest in the company, many decided improvements have been made and others are to follow. When the line is completed to Fayette City new cars will be used.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ida B. Mattox of Connellsville today applied to Deputy Recorder W. S. The records show that her maiden name was Ida B. Kerr, and that on July 28, 1904, she and William C. Mattox had obtained the license, both giving their residence as Pittsburgh. Since their marriage they have lived in Connellsville.

OUTPUT OF ANTHRACITE DECREASED IN AUGUST

Production for Entire Year Has Fallen Off—No Prospect for Revival This Month.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 9.—There is no prospect for any appreciable revival during the present month in the coal business, according to those interested in the local companies. The statistics for the past month have just been issued, showing a decrease of 837,348 tons for August, as compared with the same month last year. There is also a large falling off in the tonnage for the entire year up to that date, which amounted to 38,212,288 tons, as compared to 42,431,849 tons for the corresponding period last year. The great decrease is explained by the suspensions which have been so general throughout the anthracite region during the past month, and which will be continued during this month, probably to as great a degree.

There are evidences of a fall revival, but not sufficient to indicate that the activity peculiar to fall and winter has yet been reached. The Reading collieries, which closed down on September 1, have resumed operations, but all the Pennsylvania railroad collieries are idle this week, with one solitary exception. The Lackawanna and Delaware & Hudson companies will pursue the same policy in closing down collieries here and there for a day or two to distribute the working days as far as possible between all the men.

With the beginning of October it is expected that the large stocks which have accumulated at so many points will begin to decrease and orders will begin to pour in.

TARENTUM GIRL STEPS FROM MERRY-GO-ROUND AND DIES

BUTLER, PA., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—Just after stepping from a merry-go-round at the Allegheny Valley Maccabees picnic at Alameda park this afternoon Miss Mabel B. She was a member of the Presbyterian church of Tarentum and was 19 years of age. Her body will be taken to Tarentum Sunday for burial.

ALLEGED STRIKE LEADER IN NEW CASTLE JAIL

John Masso Is Charged With Causing Trouble on Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Construction Work.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 9.—As the result of a strike among laborers engaged in the construction of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railway here, John Masso, the alleged leader, is now in jail, awaiting a hearing on charges of assault and inciting to riot. Masso and the contractor on the railroad extension became involved in a dispute last night over the rental charged the laborers for shanties along the railway. The men allege they are charged $1 monthly for rent, whether they occupy the shanties or not.

Masso and several of his friends quit work last night and attempted to have the rest join them. On being refused they used clubs and stones and drove the Italian workers from the trenches. Sheriff Ayers today swore in several deputies who were on guard along the railroad all day, but no trouble occurred.

Additional Sporting.

CLOSE AND EXCITING.

Wind-Up Races at Wheeling Furnished Fine Sport.

WHEELING, W. VA., Sept. 9.—Seven thousand people saw the racing on the last day of the West Virginia state fair, and again the speed contests were close and exciting almost without exception. Lady Alect, winner yesterday of two heats of the 2:16 pace, dropped the first this afternoon to Jubilee, thus placing the two pacers on even terms, but Lady Alect was the better stayer and won the fifth and deciding heat in fast time, Jubilee finishing far back in the field, fifth.

In the 2:18 trot Anna W. captured the first heat, while Reddy Russell was away back in eighth place, but the latter had no difficulty in winning the ensuing three heats and the race, while Don, the favorite, was not in the running at any stage and was distanced in the last heat. In the 2:19 pace Judge Pryor took two heats, after which Red Line, the heavily-played favorite, captured three successive heats and the race in the fastest time of the race. The 2:14 pace was easy for Bill Mack in straight heats.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 9.—On an excellent track, but with a fairly heavy head wind in the stretch, Prince Alert this afternoon established new figures for pacing geldings without windshield, going the mile in 1:59½. The previous record was 1:59¾, held by himself. With Alta P. McDonald up the gelding went the first quarter in 29¾ seconds, the half in 59, the three-quarters in 1:29¼ and the mile in the time given.

The judges announced their decision in reference to the 2:24 pace of Monday last, when Alta P. McDonald, relieving John Aylward of Syracuse, won the fourth, fifth and sixth heats and race with Ambiem. Aylward and the mare were suspended for the balance of the season and $150 of the former's winnings awarded to McDonald. C. Pitman of Trenton, N. J., was suspended for 20 days for not trying to win with Mixed Wood in the same event and 10 days additional for failing to drive out Fonda in the first heat of the 2:10 pace yesterday.

LEAGUE GAMES TODAY.

Chicago at Exposition park.
Philadelphia at New York.
St. Louis at Cincinnati.
Brooklyn at Boston.

Mike Lynch's superb pitching was the cause of the Chicago Cubs' defeat yesterday afternoon at Exposition park, the Pirates winning a highly interesting game 3 to 1. Fielding features were few, but the work of both Lynch and "Buttons" Briggs on the firing line was first-class, the former collegian excelling.

Lynch had a good day and there were very few times during the afternoon's argument that the second placers had the issue at such a stage that a defeat to the champions looked probable. Lynch kept the seven hits made off his delivery well scattered, save in the fifth inning, when the Cubs' one run was made, and his bases on balls were few. Lynch passed McCarthy in the opening round when two men were out, but no damage resulted. However, in the ninth, after McCarthy and Kling had been retired on infield taps, Evers waited at the plate while Lynch was endeavoring to fool him with his curves and then got the ball over. Evers was walked and when Jones slammed a screaming single into left field the walk of Evers looked bad. This was the only stage that Chicago looked real dangerous. Tinker swung at the first ball pitched and sent it high into middle field and far away. Beaumont started back, but slipped, then regaining his bearing, got under the horsehide and caught it. The wallop looked like a sure three-bagger and Beaumont's capture of it was one of the features in the field.

Ritchey turned up the first glad-hand play in the fourth inning. McCarthy, first up in this inning, started the ball into right center on a line. It was traveling over Ritchey's head, but the second baseman leaped up, then jumped and came down with the ball in his gloved hand. It was one of the finest catches made at the park this season.

Wagner was compelled to rest yesterday because of a bad hand, and Kruger, who took his place at short, fielded the position in a creditable manner. Kruger had easy chances, save in the eighth inning, when he came in near the pitcher and threw out Williams and Barry on bounders. Barry objected to being called out on his tap, claiming he had beaten the throw by a step.

The Pirates were the first to score. Ritchey getting over the circuit in the fourth. He opened with a single to right and McCormick sent him along with a sacrifice. Ritchey began playing off second and Kling suddenly whipped the ball down to Evers. Ritchey was caught off the base and started for third. Evers dropped Kling's throw, but made a quick recovery. Ritchey, however, slid in and was safe. Bransfield slammed a single into left, Ritchey walking home.

Chicago got back the run in its fifth. Jones field to Smith, but Tinker singled to left. He tried to steal second, but Phelps had the ball to Ritchey in time to catch him for the out. Briggs, who had made but two hits during the season previous to his appearance at the bat at this stage, singled into middle. Slagle developed one of Lynch's benders into left middle for two sacks, Briggs scoring. Smith fielded the ball quickly and threw it to Lynch before Briggs was half way home, but Tommy feigned a throw to second to hold Slagle.

Briggs made a clumsy slide, rolling over the plate. When the side was retired the Chicago players played for time in order to rest up Briggs. They played the lost ball act and got away with it.

The Pirates took the game in the eighth. Leach was thrown out by Evers and Beaumont singled and traveled around to third on Ritchey's line drive into right center, he taking second on the throw-in to catch Beaumont at third. McCormick made Briggs pitch a few and then swung. The ball rolled down the first base path, over the bag and there was just four territory. Beaumont and Ritchey meanwhile were hot-footing it home. McCormick never stopped, but went on to second, making it because the Chicago infield was starting around Zimmer to set up a claim for a foul ball. Bransfield struck out and McCarthy got under Kruger's fly, retiring the side.

The Cubs offered a strong resistance in their part of the ninth, but it availed them naught. The score:

DOUBLE-HEADER WILL END TODAY AT 5:30 O'CLOCK

Pittsburgh Plays Chicago and Then Goes on Trip—Clarke at Practice.

Managers Clarke and Selee will agree upon a time limit for today's double-header. Both teams leave for Chicago at 7 o'clock this evening and it will be necessary to stop the second game at 5:30. Manager Clarke believes that it can be finished before that time, but if not, play must be stopped, no matter how the score stands.

Clarke hopes to have Wagner in the games today. The big shortstop wrenched his arm in making the double play that saved Pittsburgh from defeat in the second game at Cincinnati Wednesday, so he took a rest yesterday. Clarke had a uniform on yesterday for the first time in weeks. He practiced batting and did a brief stunt in the field.

After tomorrow the Pirates will take to the road and will visit Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Brooklyn, New York, Boston and Philadelphia in the order named, before returning to Pittsburgh to play the last two games of the season. The players believe they have a fighting chance to finish second unless more hard luck strikes the team. They will work hard to win a majority of the games of the Chicago series of five, which began yesterday. Clarke will probably use Ebertaille and Case in the games today. The new twirler will be given a thorough trial this month. Clarke is much pleased with his work and intends to send him against every club in the league at least once before the race finishes. The first game today will begin at 2 o'clock.

Catcher Fred Carisch, who is at the Allegheny General hospital suffering from typhoid fever, was worse yesterday. The doctors are somewhat alarmed about his condition.

Cleveland 4-3—Chicago 0-5.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 9.—Cleveland and Chicago again split even today, Cleveland shutting Chicago out in the first, while Chicago took the second by bunching their hits off Rhoades when it looked as if Cleveland had won. Donahue was a puzzle to Chicago in the first. Score:

ORMISTON WAS BEATEN IN MATCH

Failed to Keep Up His Form of Thursday and Went Down to Skill of Herreshoff.

MADE A VERY POOR FINISH

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

SHORT HILLS, N. J., Sept. 9.—The eight survivors in the amateur championship on the links of the Baltusrol Golf club started out at 10 o'clock. A lowering sky and early indications of rain kept the gallery down to reasonable proportions.

The match between G. A. Ormiston of Pittsburgh, who yesterday put out Mr. Travis, and Frederick Herreshoff, who yesterday put out Eben M. Byers, was generally expected to be the match of the morning, and attracted the largest gallery. The other pairs were W. T. West vs. Archie Reid, J. M. Rhett vs. D. P. Fredericks, and H. Chandler Egan vs. Arthur Havemeyer.

In the Herreshoff-Ormiston match Herreshoff had the honor from the first tee, and sliced to the trap, about 200 yards out. Ormiston drove straight for 210 yards and was about 80 yards short of the green in two. Herreshoff played short of trouble, and took four to the green, while Ormiston made a fine approach and won the hole 4 to 6. Playing the second, Ormiston was again straight on the play for a perfect four, while Herreshoff sliced to long grass, found a bunker on his next and required six. Both missed short puts for threes on the third.

On the fourth Herreshoff won 5 to 6 through better approaching, as Ormiston missed a put. After having the fifth in five, Herreshoff won the 240-yard sixth with a perfect 4 to 5, and brought the match to all square.

Playing the seventh both got had seconds, and required a three to the 8th, for a half in six. After good drives to the eighth, Herreshoff got a fine second to the green, while Ormiston was 15 feet short of hole in three.

Herreshoff won 4 to 5 and was 1 up. Ormiston drove nicely on the 182-yard ninth green, while Herreshoff rolled off. Ormiston won 3 to 4 and squared the match to the turn. Coming, Ormiston topped his drive to the tenth, and Herreshoff got nicely home on the line and won 4 to 5 and was 2 up.

Playing the twelfth, Ormiston laid his second within two feet of the hole and won 5 to 4. Ormiston topped his second into the ditch on the thirteenth, and lost 5 to 6. Ormiston played short on his second to the fourteenth for a sure 5, which was not good enough to win, as Herreshoff got a 4. After two good shots Ormiston sliced two balls out of bounds, which lost the match by 4 up 3 to play. Herreshoff got the hole, 6 to 8. The cards:

Herreshoff—
Out	6	6	4	5	5	4	6	4	4	—44
In	3	4	4	5	4	6	*	*	*	—26—70

With Walter J. Travis dethroned as the champion of American golfers, the honor of succeeding him is to be decided tomorrow. Either H. Chandler Egan of the Exmore Country club of Chicago, or Frederick Herreshoff of the Ekawanok Country club of Manchester, Vermont, will be the new champion, as these two are the survivors of a field of 133 men, representing clubs all over the United States, who started in the annual tournament last Tuesday. As Egan is the western champion and Herreshoff is the Vermont state champion, the final round of 36 holes match play will be a battle between the east and west.

Following are the results of today's play: Third round, W. T. West, Camden, beat Archie Reid, St. Andrews, by 2 up and 1 to play; Frederick Herreshoff, Ekawonok, beat George A. Ormiston, Pittsburgh, by 4 up and 3 to play; Dr. D. P. Fredericks, Oil City, beat J. M. Rhett, Crescent A. C., Brooklyn, 1 up on 20 holes; H. Chandler Egan, Exmore, beat Arthur Havemeyer, 4 up and 3 to play. Semi-final round, Herreshoff beat West by 2 up and 1 to play; Egan beat Fredericks by 2 up and 1 to play.

MISS TAYLOR BEATS MISS CLARA ARMSTRONG

The women's golf tournament at the Edgeworth club for a cup offered by E. A. Woods, the qualifying round of which was played on Tuesday, was concluded yesterday, the winner being Miss Bertha Taylor, who defeated in the finals Miss Clara Armstrong by 4 and 2. Miss Taylor played from scratch and Miss Armstrong had a handicap of eight strokes.

Farms.

"FAYETTE FARMS."
We are now ready to offer our friends a choice five-acre farm in our new plan of "Fayette Farms," located near Bridgeville, Allegheny county, Pa., at a price less than they will have to pay for an ordinary lot in any of the nearby suburban towns.

This section has the best future of any adjacent to Pittsburgh; while it lies in the heart of the celebrated Chartiers valley, yet it is beautiful upland, with level surface and magnificent views.

The railway service is unsurpassed. Thirteen trains each way via the Panhandle make the trip between Bridgeville and Pittsburgh in 25 to 35 minutes; and the Wabash proposes to run plenty of trains each way in less than 10 minutes.

After a thorough search, this property has been selected by us as the most available for country homes for people engaged in business in the city, and we guarantee all freedom from the annoyance of crowded street cars by giving our patrons the choice between the two finest railways in the world. We want you to go and see these farms.

STOCK MARKET BROADER AND CLOSED HIGHER

Steel Common and Preferred, Pennsylvania and Reading Advanced to the Highest of the Year. Local Stocks Strong.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market yesterday was the broadest of the week. The sales were a little the largest for any day of the week, but the total still fell below the million-share mark. The news of the day was of a rather negative character. There was no frost in the corn belt and none was predicted for last night. On the contrary, the weather throughout Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas was ideal for corn, and Nebraska experts estimated that one week more of such weather would place the crop out of danger and assure a yield of 275,000,000 bushels for that state. Corn was weak and lower in the Chicago market, indicating that speculators were afraid to support it on crop-damage possibilities. Wheat also closed lower, and some of the big operators were conspicuous sellers of the May option. Dispatches from Washington predicted that the government report today would prove less unfavorable as regards wheat and extremely favorable as regards corn. Whether predictions were based upon a 'leak' in the department of agriculture, or were merely a guess, is immaterial: even the bulls on grain appeared to lack faith in their position, and bulls on the granger stocks felt encouraged.

Fully a score of leading stocks again scored new high prices for the year, and the gains were well distributed. The recovery in the grangers was regarded as especially significant. The only stock of this group to close lower was Union Pacific, and its loss was only ⅝ per cent. All the others closed strong and higher, St. Paul reaching 158 and closing at 157¾ bid. Atchison closed ½ per cent higher, Southern Pacific ⅝ higher and Rock Island common 1⅝ higher. There appeared to be concentrated buying of the latter, and London operators looked upon it favorably.

A feature of the day's dealings which attracted attention and comment was the activity and strength of high-priced railroad stocks. Delaware & Hudson rose to 170, New York Central to 125½, Illinois Central to 139, Northwestern to 190, and other stocks of this class proportionate amounts. It often happens when interest in a bull market lags for the manipulators to buy a few hundred shares each of the gilt-edge stocks to convey the impression that large financial institutions and public investors generally are buying. There was no need for such manipulation yesterday, because the market was active and broader, and for this reason the transactions in these high-grade dividend payers was thought to be bona fide investment buying.

U. S. Steel common and preferred were active and strong and both issues reached the highest prices of the year. The common advanced to 14⅝ and the preferred to 64¾, and the final sales were at the highest. It was reported that Pittsburgh interests were buyers of both classes of the stock, and shorts covering were thought to be a factor in the movement. The net gain for Steel preferred was 1¼ per cent, and the stock is now at the highest point since last October. The minor iron and steel stocks were moderately active and closed higher.

Amalgamated Copper made a strong rally just before the close, the price reaching 59¾. There was an advance in the London copper market, and the asking price for the metal in domestic markets was raised ⅛ of a cent. Sugar was fairly active and strong, reaching 132½ and closing at a net gain of 1¼ per cent. Consolidated Gas was more active than for weeks past, and just before the close the price ran up to 202½, the close showing a net gain of 3¼ per cent for the day. There was a revival of activity in the traction stocks, but for a time the movement was irregular. Brooklyn Rapid Transit broke 1 per cent to 56 while Metropolitan was advancing from 120¼ to 122¾. The latter movement was based upon a calling in of Metropolitan stock, which was thought to presage an official announcement in connection with the long-pending deal. Late in the day Brooklyn recovered nearly all its early loss.

A further increase in loans and decrease in cash is indicated for to-day's bank statement. This prospect, however, had no effect upon call loan rates, which closed easy and unchanged at ⅝ to 1 per cent.

The local stock market was active and firm all day, and prices closed higher. Crucible Steel preferred took the leadership and on sales of a little more than 1,200 shares the stock advanced to 40, the highest for weeks. The common stock rallied to 5⅝ regular and to 5⅞ buyer 10 days, and both issues closed firm. There was nothing in the day's news to account for the movement, except the admission that the company's officials had in preparation a statement concerning the Clairton deal which will be sent to stockholders some time before the annual meeting in October. U. S. Steel common and preferred were both firm and higher. Pittsburgh Coal preferred rallied a dollar a share to 60 right at the close of the market, and final quotations were 59¾ bid, 60 asked. Westinghouse Electric was less active and declined a fraction to 81⅝, closing at 81⅞. River Coal preferred advanced to 22 and closed at 21¾ bid. The rest of the market was dull, but the tone was distinctly more cheerful.

FEATURES OF THE DAY

IN PITTSBURGH.	IN WALL STREET.
Stock market more active and prices were firmer all around.	Biggest stock market of the year closed at a further advance.
Crucible Steel preferred advanced to 40 on sales of 1,255 shares.	Sales foot up 973,400 shares stock and $6,210,000 bonds.
United States Steel common and preferred dull, but closed higher.	More than a score of stocks made new record prices for the year.
Pittsburgh Coal preferred strong, advancing to 60 and closing at the top.	Steel common reached 14⅝, the preferred 64¾ and the bonds 81½.
River Coal preferred advanced to 22 and the bonds sold at 110¼.	Reading rallied to 70 and Pennsylvania reached 128 late in the day.
Westinghouse Electric closed at a slight decline for the day.	High class investment stocks more active than for several weeks.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

On the theory that the Crucible Steel directors would not make any statement of the Clairton deal unless they could make the situation appear more favorable than that accepted by the public in the absence of official information, Crucible Steel stocks were active and higher. The common rallied to 5⅝ regular and sold at 5⅞ buyer's option 10 days. The preferred rose to 40, the highest since last April. Of course, the fact that United States Steel issues were advancing, and that there was a much more cheerful sentiment in industrial circles, had something to do with the strength in Crucible.

Pittsburgh Coal preferred rallied to 60 late in the afternoon and closed at 59¾ bid. This is within 2¼ per cent of the high price of the year, and represents a recovery of 15 points from the lowest of the year. A correspondent writes asking why it is that United States Steel preferred sells about 5 per cent above Pittsburgh Coal preferred when both pay the same rate of dividend. The principal reason is that United States Steel has a broader market. For instance, the rise in Steel preferred this week was aided by purchases for London account. Then again the short interest in Steel preferred is believed to be enormous, which is an element of strength. Pittsburgh Coal preferred, on the other hand, while well distributed, is restricted to the local market, which has been exceedingly narrow for all securities. Probably if one would take the time to figure it out, it would be found that Pittsburgh Coal is earning more on its $50,716,200 outstanding preferred stock than United States Steel is earning on its outstanding $360,281,100 preferred stock; but the difference in the character of the market for the two stocks would account for the difference in market value, irrespective of earnings.

Quarterly dividends on Westinghouse Electric, Airbrake and Switch and Signal will probably be declared next week. Electric was a shade lower in the local market yesterday, while the other Westinghouse stocks were neglected.

A veteran of the Pittsburgh stock exchange remarked yesterday: "Our market is nearly always one-sided. Traders are either all buyers or all sellers. For that reason it would not surprise me to see a smart advance in local securities, if the cheerful feeling continues in Wall street."

A Wall street dispatch said yesterday that Pittsburgh interests were large buyers of Steel preferred and Reading common. Both stocks advanced to the highest prices of the year and closed near the top.

A comparative statement of two items in the Mellon National bank report makes the following showing:

	Deposits.	Resources.
September 6	$21,862,886	$26,497,760
June 9	19,879,223	24,317,554
March 28	20,983,463	24,965,441
January 22	21,019,386	24,944,022
November 17	19,646,283	23,874,202

An initial quotation of 100 bid was made on the newly listed Pittsburgh Trolley Pole stock.

George W. Henderson of G. B. Hill & Co.'s office, has been elected a member of the Pittsburgh stock exchange.

Central District and Printing Telegraph advanced to 122 bid. There were no offerings of the stock.

Estimates of the current quarter's earnings by United States Steel run close to $18,000,000.

There was some favorable talk regarding Illinois Central and Baltimore & Ohio and predictions that both will sell higher.

The movement in Rock Island was associated to some extent with the current rumors that the control of Chicago & Alton had been picked up in the open market in the Rock Island interest. Chicago & Alton was neglected and unaffected by the story.

Fayette County Gas was quoted at 80 bid and Union Natural Gas at 86 bid.

The prospect of another weak bank return was of little effect on the stock market. The banks seem to have lost about $7,000,000 more cash since the last statement and the active speculation of the week leads to the expectation of a further considerable loan expansion.

THE MONEY MARKET.

The statements of the national banks reveal a decrease in loans and an increase in deposits, which tend to verify the reports of easy money market conditions. Rates remain unchanged at 5@6 per cent on call and time loans. Clearing house comparisons:

	Exchanges.	Balances.
Yesterday	$6,342,390 09	$1,290,503 49
Last week	6,130,667 59	1,045,838 60
Last year	9,527,405 45	1,749,706 58

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Money was in good demand in the market today in connection with the payment of $12,500,000 in treasury bills. The supplies, however, were sufficient. Discounts were steady. The rumored withdrawal of Russian gold from the Bank of France is not considered to be baseless. In spite of the denial that withdrawals are to be made, Financial circles are of the opinion that the amount will be much less than the sum originally named, $40,000,000 to $60,000,000, the proceeds of the last loan. It is thought probable that the bulk of the money will be transferred to Germany in connection with payments necessary there, but possibly some of it will reach London. Consequently there is much less anxiety as to the effect of the operation. Trading on the stock exchange was quiet and prices were steady. The strong bank reserve helped to rally the market. Consols were steady and closed easier. Americans opened fractionally higher and maintained their strength to above parity. Southern Pacific and Reading were the features. They closed firm. Grand Trunks hardened on traffic expectations. Foreigners were fairly steady. Japanese securities were easier on the slowness of the progress of the Japanese armies. Imperial Japanese government 6s of 1904 were quoted at 96⅜; consols for money, 87 7-16; consols for account, 88 9-16; money, 1½@1¾ per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for short bills, 2⅛@2⅜ per cent; three months' bills, 2 9-16@2⅝ per cent; the amount of bullion taken into the Bank of England on balance today was £65,000.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—Business on the bourse today was steady and the tone was calm. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 93 40 and Russian bonds of 1901 at 107; three per cent rentes, 98 francs 70 centimes for the account; exchange on London, 25 francs 23½ centimes for checks.

BERLIN, Sept. 9.—The transactions on the boerse today were unimportant; exchange on London, 20 marks 43 pfgs for checks; discount rates, short bills, 2 per cent; three months' bills, 2⅛ per cent.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Money on call easy at 3@4 per cent; closing bid, ⅜ per cent; offered at 1 per cent; time loans steady; 60 days, 2@2½ per cent; 90 days, 2½@2¾ per cent; six months, 3½@3¾ per cent; prime mercantile paper, 4½@4¾ per cent; sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4 87.05@4 87.10 for demand and at $4 83.50@4 84.60 for 60 days' bills; posted rates, $4 85 and $4 88½; commercial bills, $4 84¼; bar silver, 56¾c; Mexican dollars, 45¾c; government bonds steady; railroad bonds firm.

Standard Investment Bonds.

The Colonial Trust Company, No. 317 Fourth ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., has for sale a variety of bonds yielding the purchaser from 3½ to 6 per cent, which it recommends as desirable investments. Inquire of Alexander C. Thompson, manager bond department.

CRANBERRIES ARRIVE; CANTALOUPES GO UP

Celery and Plums Are Slow, Flour Is Showing Firmer Again.

The first cranberries of the season arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday and were on sale along Liberty avenue. The stock is of good quality for so early in the season and the quotations are about the average for first arrivals. Produce trade showed fairly well yesterday, and the month so far has been a great improvement over August.

Cantaloupes are higher. Rockfords are in only fair supply, and from this time on competition will not likely bear prices down. Celery is slow; a great deal is coming in now, as it is ready for use and the growers are compelled to ship. Plums are still plentiful. Lemons are good property and are wanted. Onions are on the downward tendency and prices are reduced. Cantaloupe arrivals yesterday were 14 cars, cabbage arrivals were 13 cars. There are now 22 cars of apples in the yards. There is a firmer feeling on peaches.

Eggs are very strong. Cheese is firm and likely to go higher any time. Butter is about steady. Groceries were quiet yesterday so far as prices were concerned. Flour is firm. Coffee is about the same as last week this time.

A great deal of hay continues to arrive daily. Demand, however, is comparatively good and the shipments are being cleaned up. Oats are rather easy and bran is plentiful. Straw is wanted and is commanding full prices. Rye is coming in more freely.

One car California fruits sold here today: 150 crates muscat grapes, 90c@$1.00; 307 crates Tokay grapes, $1.50@2.10; 208 boxes Bartlett pears, $1 60@2 35; 21½ boxes Bartlett pears, $1 20.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania lines, 35 cars hay, 17 cars oats, 3 cars feed, 1 car rye, 2 cars corn and oats, 9 cars corn; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, 2 cars hay, 1 car rye, 1 car oats; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 6 cars hay, 2 car feed.

HOLDERS ARE ANXIOUS TO UNLOAD WHEAT

Fear That Government Crop Bulletin Will Not Confirm Damage Reports.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Fearing that the government crop bulletin, to be issued tomorrow, would not confirm in entirety the numerous recent damage reports, many traders disposed of their holdings of wheat today. As a result prices had a lower tendency. Final quotations on December wheat, however, were exactly at yesterday's closing figures. Corn was off ⅛c. Oats were down ⅜@½c. Provisions closed practically unchanged.

At the opening of the wheat market, ideal harvest weather prevailing throughout the spring wheat country counterbalanced the effects of higher cables, causing a somewhat easier tone. Initial quotations on December were unchanged to ⅛c lower, at $1 08¼@1 08⅜. Immediately after the opening the market experienced a sudden advance as a result of a fair general demand for May. On the upturn December rose to $1 08⅞, but the higher prices brought out liberal realizing sales. The consequent decline was as abrupt as had been the previous advance. During the first half of the session the price of the December option hovered around $1 08. Although crop news from the northwest today was as bullish as ever, the demand lacked the energy manifested of late. Several prominent operators who had recently been supporting the market had considerable wheat for sale. The selling by these big people was largely in preparation for a possible surprise when the government figures on the crop are given out tomorrow. Saturday's short session being usually considered a poor day on which to sell large lines. Toward the noon hour the market reached the low level, with December selling at $1 07¾. Some recovery was made on buying, due to small primary receipts, the market closing fairly steady, with December at $1 08⅜. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 149,600 bushels. Exports of wheat and flour for the week, as shown by Bradstreets, were equal to 1,506,900 bushels. Primary receipts were 628,100 bushels, compared with 1,193,800 a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 424 cars, against 347 cars last week and 807 cars a year ago.

Excellent weather for the maturing of the crop was perhaps the main cause of a decline of nearly a cent in the price of corn. Another factor bearing on the market was the intimation that the government report to be issued tomorrow would be of a bearish character. Several large commission houses were persistent sellers. The market closed almost at the lowest point. December opened a shade higher to ¼c lower at 52¼@52⅝c, sold between 52⅜@51⅞c and closed at 51⅝@51¾c. Local receipts were 749 cars, with 71 of contract grade.

For a brief period at the opening the oats market showed some firmness, but soon weakened in sympathy with other grains. During the greater part of the session trading was in light volume. December opened a shade higher at 33c, sold off to 32½c and closed at the bottom. Local receipts were 174 cars.

Provisions opened firm on buying for outside account, but later selling of pork by pit traders caused an easier tone. At the close January pork was off 5c at $12 52½. Lard closed unchanged at $7 17½. Ribs were a shade lower at $6 60.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 79 cars; corn, 563 cars; oats, 165 cars; hogs, 11,000 head.

RESUMPTION OF WORK IS BRIGHTENING TRADE

All the Manufacturing Industries Show Signs of Better Condition as Season Advances.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Holiday influence is calculated to check distribution of merchandise, but the outlook has brought more encouraging results in the business world, and from many points come reports of steadily expanding trade, while it is not exceptional to find comparisons with the corresponding week last year favorable to 1904. Retail trade in fall lines of drygoods, clothing, millinery and nearly all wearing apparel shows a healthy growth, and for forwarding household utensils and kindred lines there is a broader demand. The best development of the week was the resumption of work in many industries that have suffered through strikes, while several serious controversies were averted. Crop progress is better than average, and high prices promise a large profit to the farmers. Railway freight is heavy, chiefly due to the marketing of grain and cotton, and earnings in August were 2.8 per cent larger than in 1903. Domestic trade holds up better than foreign commerce, which suffers from prices above the views of consumers abroad, yet the last week's returns for this port are encouraging, exports increasing $736,303 in comparison with the same week last year, while imports gained $2,578,343.

Signs of better conditions in the leading manufacturing industry multiply as the season advances, and the actual amount of business in shipping orders for this month, despite the indisposition of the railways to place orders freely for rolling stock, rails and other equipment. At the south there is still trouble on account of the bituminous coal miners' strike, which strengthens the coke market. Resumption of work by several prominent western steel companies provided more pig iron furnaces in blast.

Restoration of more normal conditions in the packing industry has removed some of the artificial strength from the hide market, and poor qualities are offered at pronounced concessions. Demand is only fair, and importers

JURY'S VERDICT WAS FOR JOYCE

Inquisition Failed to Show That He Was an Habitual Drunkard.

BOY RUINED THE MACHINERY

Thomas Joyce has been relieved by a jury of the charge of being an habitual drunkard at the time of the inquisition instituted by P. F. Joyce. The testimony taken before the commissioner is voluminous and spicy. Joyce was the sole heir to the estate of his sister, Bessie Taylor. His whereabouts was not known at the time of her death, and Catherine E. Feetean of 443 Third avenue advertised for him, afterward locating him. She then secured a deed to real estate of the dead sister on one of the lower avenues from him, paying him $4,000 and assuming a $9,000 mortgage. His bank account was opened on February 10, 1903, with a deposit of $3,900 and closed on July 31, 1903. He was found working in the oil country and according to the testimony of Catherine Feetean decided on taking some recreation after making the sale. A number of the checks with which he withdrew the account showed she was the payer in a number of large ones. She was asked if she had not been offered $40,000, but she replied in the negative. During the life of the sister, the Feetean woman testified, she had saved her property for her and also paid bills amounting to $2,500. Diamonds valued at $800 were retained by the Feetean woman, she testifying that Bessie Taylor said they were to be her's on account of small loans made.

Detectives Charged With Perjury.

Ira L. Berry and William J. Manning, Anti-Saloon league detectives, will be placed on trial Monday on a charge of perjury preferred by a saloonkeeper.

In juvenile court John Miller was adjudged guilty of a charge of malicious mischief. The charge was made by C. H. Block, representing the Spang-Chalfant Company. He alleged the boy threw an iron bolt into the machinery at the company's Etna plant and thereby damaging a lot of valuable machinery. Thomas Drake and Joseph Blakely were adjudged guilty of malicious mischief and Henry Fulfer was acquitted of the charge. The boys were charged with taking the grips of people at the Union station and if they were not given money by the owners, would throw the satchels into the street.

The Arcade Manufacturing Company of Chicago has entered suit in the United States circuit court against the Swank Hardware Company of Johnstown, alleging an infringement on a patent cork extractor. It is asked that an injunction be granted against the defendant company and that $25,000 damages be awarded.

In the United States circuit court W. A. Cain, a contractor of Dayton, O., has entered suit against the Hockensmith Wheel and Mine Car Company of Penn, Westmoreland county. The plaintiff alleges he did some work for the defendant company and that they still owe him $2,113 84.

In criminal court James Leonard was sent to the workhouse for two years for larceny.

Alderman and Constable Sued.

Alderman J. D. Walker and his constable, Benjamin Duncan, have been sued for $5,000 each by Joseph Cohn. The plaintiff alleges Walker issued a warrant for his arrest and Duncan arrested him and placed him in jail, from where he was released by the court. Cohn alleges the men had no authority to arrest him, as he was only sued for a civil debt. Attorney Samuel G. Bailey represents Cohn.

The Pittsburgh Construction Compaay and the West Side Belt Railroad Company have been sued for $10,000 by Kirk Q. Bigham for alleged damages to property. Similar suits have been entered by Bigham and Thomas B. Hutchinson against Thomas H. Werneberg, James H. McRoberts and the same companies as in the first case.

ROESSLE'S WILL FILED.

Proprietor of Hotel Arlington, Washington, Leaves Entire Estate to His Family.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The will of T. E. Roessle, late proprietor of the Arlington hotel, was filed for probate today. An accompanying petition places the value of Mr. Roessle's real estate in Washington at $150,000 and of his New York real estate at $1,000,000. The personal estate is valued at $200,000. The furnishings in his home in Vermont avenue and in storage in New York, are devised to the widow. The gift of the jewelry, bric-a-brac and furniture of Mr. Roessle's first wife to Marion L. McKinney, her daughter, is ratified.

All indorsements on notes, money loaned and on other securities advanced to his son, Elwood O. Roessle, said to amount to $95,800, "shall be deducted from his share of the estate until he can arrange them." The will provided for control of the hotel business by the widow. The residue is divided equally among the widow, the son and daughter.

DIVIDEND ASSURED BY U. S. STEEL EARNINGS

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—(Special.)—There is very good authority for the statement that the earnings of the United States Steel Corporation in the quarter ending September 30 will approximate $18,000,000 says the Wall Street Journal today. This, presumably, assures the payment of the regular quarterly dividend on the preferred stock.

A new and up-to-date department for Men's and Boys' clothing will be opened this morning by the Leader Department Store. Hunes, formerly of Philadelphia, who will be assisted by Mr. Ralph Samuels, formerly of Gusky's. It is a foregone conclusion that, like all other departments in this busy store, the clothing for Men and Boys will be sold at surprisingly low figures.

FOURTH AVENUE PROPERTY SOLD

Henry and J. N. Hartman Purchase Minnis Lot at 512.

SHOE STORE FOR EAST END

Through the office of Warren & Gray the property of the Minnis estate at 512 Fourth avenue has been sold to Henry and J. N. Hartman. The property has been in the Minnis family for over 60 years and the new owners are well known realty investors who are likely to improve the lot. This measures 18x85 feet on the south side of Fourth avenue, between Grant and Ross streets, and near the Hermann and Lincoln office buildings. A two-story brick house now occupies the site. The exact consideration in the sale could not be learned, but it is understood to have been about $20,000. This is the first sale in this locality for months, and is significant in that the articles of agreement were signed early in July before the hump removal ordinances were voted down.

Levi Colvin of the firm of Colvin, Atwell & Co., wholesale grocers, has purchased from William Kerr through the agency of John N. Straub, 849 Pacific avenue, near Harriett street, Twentieth ward, for $15,000. The residence, which the buyer now occupies, is a 12-room center hall brick house on 50x150 feet. In part payment for this property Mr. Colvin tendered a nine-room brick house on 25x165 feet, at 1433 Page street, Sixth ward, Allegheny, which was valued at $5,000.

One More Shoe Store.

Judging by the movements of shoe merchants, the oft-repeated saying that "the cobble stone pavements and steep hills of Pittsburgh make it the best shoe town in the country," must have a large measure of truth in it. The latest announcement is that C. A. Verner, whose main store is now at Fifth avenue and Market street, will occupy the entire building which Leopold Vilsack will erect at 6204 Penn avenue, two doors from the Vilsack office building in East Liberty. Architects Rutan & Russell have awarded the contract for the building to E. L. Kreusler, who began clearing the site Wednesday. The new building will be a handsome two-story brick and terra cotta structure, 22x110 feet, and will cost approximately $7,000. The basement will be used for men's shoes exclusively, and the first floor for ladies' and children's shoes. The second floor will be a storage room. Mr. Verner has secured the building for a long term of years. The old Grant hotel, which is being torn down, is one of the landmarks of the East End, having been built by John Grant 54 years ago. An old wooden pump stood in front of the building for over a quarter of a century and this was a frequent gathering place for stockmen and politicians.

Buildings for Wilkinsburg.

Wood street, Wilkinsburg, is building up at a rate that threatens to push up the prices of realty there. At the southeast corner of Wood and Elliott streets William R. Hibbard is perparing to build a three-story apartment house at a cost of $30,000. The building will contain six suites of five rooms each. W. E. Hamnett is putting the finishing touches on the Clayton building on the east side of Wood street, near Franklin avenue. Negotiations are now pending which are likely to result in a department store locating on the first floor of this building and the upper floors are being rented for offices. D. H. Wallace has recently completed four store rooms adjoining the Clayton block. These are one-story brick buildings, with handsome terra cotta fronts, and one of them has already been rented. At Wood street and South avenue the Central National bank is making extensive alterations to the buildings it bought last year, which it will occupy in October.

Alexander Gardner is breaking ground for a $40,000 apartment house at the southeast corner of Ross and Mill street, Wilkinsburg. The building will be four stories high and will contain eight suites of six rooms each. Another four-story apartment house to cost nearly $50,000 is booked to be built on the opposite corner.

Two Churches for Wilkinsburg.

The South Avenue Methodist Episcopal church of Wilkinsburg has appointed the Rev. T. N. Eaton, J. A. Strickler and A. J. Walner a committee to buy a site for a new church building. Property in Swissvale avenue, above Glenn avenue, is being considered. The church is now in South avenue, between Center and Wood streets, but has a seating capacity of only 600, while its Sunday school alone numbers over 800. The limit of cost fixed by the congregation is $20,000.

Bids are being taken by Architects Milligan & Miller on a three-story brick apartment house, to be built by G. A. Spivey in Maple avenue, near Alder street, East End, at a cost of $12,000. The same architects are taking bids on a similar flat for C. A. Marshall at Kelly and West streets, Wilkinsburg.

Calvary Presbyterian church of Wilkinsburg on Wednesday evening approved plans for a $15,000 church to be built at Swissvale and Hill avenues. Ground will be broken next week.

Rumors are again current of big purchases to be made by the Wabash railroad near its passenger terminal. It is reported the railroad has agents after property along Blockhouse way and also for property in Liberty avenue to the south of the station, extending to No. 316. Condemnation suits have been entered, it is said, against a number of property owners to hasten matters. One of the suits is for the four-story building owned by William Printy of Allegheny, and occupied by the Briggs Machine Company. The property is valued at $40,000, and the bond is for $20,000. Another bond of $20,000 has been filed to cover any loss sustained by the Briggs company. No objections were filed by the company, which will relocate within a few days, probably in Second avenue. The buildings on the property wanted include dwellings, stores and factories. It is not known for what purpose the Wabash wants the property, although it is rumored that it is for a freight terminal.

NATIONAL BANK DEPOSITS SHOW A LARGE INCREASE

The appended analysis of the statements of the 31 national banks of this city shows that deposits have made a decided increase since the last statements were made last June. The increase exceeds six millions and brings the total up pretty close to the greatest on record, $141,687,809, on April 9, 1903. Ten of the 31 show a decrease, but in most cases it is slight.

While the deposits have been growing, loans and discounts have decreased, the falling off in this item being nearly $1,000,000. These changes have found reflection in the decidedly easier money market that has prevailed here the last month or two.

The banks are all prospering, as is clearly shown by the general increase in surplus and undivided profits. Comparison of this item is made with the statements of September 9, 1903, in order to show the growth for a full year in each case.

NEW WABASH OFFICIAL.

Walter S. Turnbull, Appointed Traveling Passenger Agent, Has Entered on His Duties Here.

Ticket agents and prospective travelers throughout this section are rapidly becoming acquainted with Walter S. Turnbull, who recently accepted the position of traveling passenger agent of the Walter S. Turnbull.

Wabash railroad with headquarters at Pittsburgh.

Mr. Turnbull is distinctly a Wabash man. He has seen 25 years' service with the company, entering the service as a boy. For a number of years he was connected with the general passenger offices at St. Louis. When Charles Hamilton was promoted from passenger agent at the St. Louis Union station to city passenger agent at Pittsburgh a couple of years ago, Mr. Turnbull succeeded Mr. Hamilton. His work at the St. Louis station was such that the advancement to the Pittsburgh position was well won.

FORMER DECISION REVERSED

Court Passes on Westinghouse Suit Against the Stanley Instrument Company.

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—(Special.)—The United States circuit court of appeals today handed down a decision in the case of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company vs. Stanley Instrument Company reversing the judgment of the circuit court which dismissed a bill brought with a view to prevent alleged infringement of patents issued to Nikola Tesla relating to conversion of alternating currents of electricity into a continuous current.

The defendant had contended that the alleged invention was not addressed to the utilization of two-phased currents in a motor, but to a new way of producing the necessary two out-of-phase currents, and that this specific way of producing two out-of-phase currents was old and well known in the art.

Lifeless Body on Top of Train.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—When the Chicago Limited of the New York Central arrived at the Grand Central station today the lifeless body of a young man, with the head crushed, was found lying on the roof of the mail car. It is supposed he was stealing a ride and was struck by a low bridge. The body was identified as that of Abraham Jacobson, son of a neckwear dealer of this city.

Will Complete the Program.

Complete arrangements for the mass meeting in favor of the Irish home rule movement, to be held on September 15, will be made today at Edward F. Duffey's office in Diamond street, where the Western Pennsylvania central council of the societies of the United Irish league will meet. The council was in session yesterday afternoon, but the time was taken up in discussion.

RAILROADS WILL REQUIRE MANY RAILS NEXT YEAR

Judging from reports of the heads of the leading railroads throughout the country, the amount of rails to be laid next year will exceed in miles more than any year in the history of the country. This will not be brought about by the building of new roads entirely, but by replacing light rails with heavier ones. The western roads contemplate building extensions into country not yet developed, but the majority of rails are to replace old and light ones.

The orders placed for rails last year have not all been delivered. On account of the depression the roads stopped improvements, and in doing so prevented the delivery of the orders. Realizing business is improving and that by next spring all the railroads will be doing a big business, the officials are preparing to complete improvements and will have to place orders for material accordingly.

The western roads are looked upon to furnish the largest orders. The Gould interests are credited with the intention of building to the Pacific coast, the Sante Fe desires to push further into Mexico, while in the east several projects are contemplated. These improvements, together with the building of electric lines, augur a bright future for the rail mills.

Freight Shipments Increasing.

Eastern railroads operating out of Chicago and St. Louis report further gains in their volume of traffic. Tonnage is heavier, the principal increase having been in grain. Officials say they are receiving more freight of all classes, and while there is no car shortage now, they are rapidly approaching such a condition. Coal is moving in a large volume, and there is said to be a perceptible improvement in the tonnage of iron and steel.

Rates for Hunting Parties.

The near approach of the hunting season has caused the question to be raised as to whether hunters' rates should be given again this year. The railroads are not so much concerned about whether the rates should be given, as what those rates should be. It is said it is possible that at the coming meeting of the passenger association the old rates will be reaffirmed, with some little differences.

Coal and Coke Shipments.

The shipments of coal and coke originating on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburgh and Erie for the week ending September 3, were the heaviest in some months. The totals for the week were: Anthracite, 96,184 short tons; bituminous, 550,221, and coke, 179,153 tons.

THE THREE RIVERS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9.—The stage of the river this evening marked 5.3 feet and falling. Weather clear and cooler. Today's packet departures were: Big Kanawha for Charleston, Tacoma for Pomeroy, Courier for Maysville, Ben Hur for Louisville, and Indiana for Louisville. Business on the river front was at a practical stand-still today. The government boat E. A. Woodruff is doing work in the local harbor. Today the crew raised a barge of coal sunk on the Dayton sand bar several weeks ago by the towboat George Matheson of the Marmet company. The wreckage was thrown upon the shore for the benefit of the river pirates. All of the coal has been recovered by the beach combers and stored in sheds along the river front. There are no towboats excepting the light draft craft moving in this harbor. On account of the shallow water and her size, the Alice Brown will not be pulled out on the ways for necessary repairs.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Jutte Interests Make Definite Announcement About Down River Improvements.

C. Jutte & Co. awarded the contract yesterday for the construction of a coaling dock at New Orleans. The hoist will have a capacity sufficient to place 2,500 tons of coal aboard a vessel in one day. W. C. Jutte left the city last night for New York, where he will negotiate for the purchase of a tug to be used jointly with the two tugs now in operation there by the Jutte firm. The improvement will place the coal operators in a position to contract for the sale of 300,000 tons of coal during next year.

The land for the new coaling dock was secured last spring, at which time the firm announced intentions to enter the New Orleans field more vigorously. Since that time a company known as the Mississippi River Coaling Company was organized for the purpose of completing the arrangements. The betterments provided for in the contract, which was let to Heyl & Patterson, of this city, represent a cost of about $200,000, including the amount of money expended for the land.

Local River Notes.

The R. L. Aubrey was busy yesterday cleaning out the Jutte landing at the south end of the Wabash bridge.

The celebration at Rochester of the opening of the new Merrill dam has been postponed from October 8 to October 15.

The River Coal Company will repair the I. N. Bunton, Charlie Clark, Stella Moren and Neritha at the Elizabeth wags as rapidly as possible after the works there are opened Monday.

RAILROADS SHOW LARGER EARNINGS

Handsome Increase in Gross Revenue for the Year to Date.

IMPORTANT SYSTEM AS GUIDE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.

A comparative table compiled by a Wall street news agency showing the earnings of the most important railway systems for periods ranging in length from the current year to date, shows handsome increases in the gross earnings for the fourth week of the last month and also an increase in the earnings for the year to date over that same part of last year. The report shows the earnings for July to suffer by comparison, despite decreases for that month in operating expenses. It is shown also that the decreased net earnings for the year just closed were caused by increased operating expenses and building.

For the third week of August the gross earnings of 48 railroads aggregated $8,673,159, against $8,551,781, in the corresponding period last year, an increase of $121,378, or 1.41 per cent. For the fourth week of August the gross earnings of 38 railroads aggregated $12,616,178, against $11,501,907 in the corresponding period last year, an increase of $1,114,271, or 9.68 per cent. For August the gross earnings of 37 railroads aggregated $47,576,702, against $46,013,356 in the corresponding period last year, an increase of $1,557,047, or 3.38 per cent.

From July 1 to August 31 the gross earnings of 37 railroads aggregated $91,083,222, against $90,408,041 in the corresponding period last year, an increase of $675,181, or .74 per cent. The gross and net returns of 49 railroads of July were as follows: Gross earnings, $6,273,904; decrease, $3,995,909; operating expenses, $44,425,319; decrease $1,536,067; net earnings, $21,845,585; decrease $2,159,842. The gross earnings decreased 5.68 per cent; operating expenses decreased 3.97 per cent, and net earnings decreased 8.99 per cent.

JEWISH NEW YEAR BEGINS.

Year 5665 Was Ushered in at Sunset and Special Services Were Held in Synagogues.

This is the beginning of the year 5665 in the Jewish calendar. The new year was ushered in at sunset last night, which was signalized by the usual services in all the temples and synagogues throughout the world. In the synagogue the blowing of a ram's horn called the attention of the gathering worshipers to the feast which was about to begin. The meaning of this ancient custom is the proclamation of God as king of the universe.

In the Reform congregation of Rodeph Shalom, Eighth street, the initial services were held at 7:30 o'clock last night, and at 9:30 o'clock this morning another service will be held, both addressed by the Rev. Dr. J. Leonard Levy. The new year services mark the most sacred day in the Jewish calendar, which occurs 10 days later. In orthodox circles new year's cards are exchanged and traditional customs are closely adhered to.

Jahn Gets Out of Jail.

J. Henry Jahn was yesterday released from jail, bail being furnished by Louis Gordon and George O. Wigley in the civil proceedings. He immediately celebrated his release by entering a suit against Evaline M. Schopfer, executrix of the estate of Charles F. Schopfer, for $700. This amount he claims is due on a note of $1,000 alleged to have been given by Schopfer and his wife in July, 1903, and on which $300 was paid.
